Critical Training: 4.28.10

FUNCTIONAL AREA 5.0
LEGAL REQUIREMENTS OF ARREST,
SEARCH, SEIZURE, EVIDENCE, AND USE OF FORCE

The trainee will understand the constitution principles and legal precedents relating to arrest search and seizure. Additionally, policy and law relating to use of force will be covered.

UNIT TITLES:

5.1 CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS

The unit covers the basic rights of individuals as provided by the United States Constitution and the New Jersey Constitution, with special emphasis on the federal First, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Amendments and the corresponding state provisions. The authority of the courts in resolving constitutional issues is described and the purpose of the court-created Exclusionary Rule is explained.

5.2 PROBABLE CAUSE

The unit discusses the concept and definition of probable cause. It covers the sources for developing probable cause and the considerations that should be taken into account for establishing probable cause. The trainee will be given practice in determining whether sufficient basis exists for establishing probable cause.

5.3 STREET ENCOUNTERS

The unit covers the legal requirements necessary for street encounters including inquiries, stops, and detention and covers legal guidelines regarding frisks. The unit introduces the concept of reasonable suspicion and discusses issues regarding use of force and Miranda warnings during a street encounter.

5.4 LEGAL REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURES OF LAWFUL ARREST

The unit covers the legal requirements that must exist before an arrest can be made, the law enforcement officer's authority and jurisdiction to arrest, the requirements and limitations of an arrest with or without a warrant, and the process for obtaining a complaint-summons and a complaint-warrant. The unit presents other arrest authorities, for example, citizen's arrest, and the police procedures for persons exempt from arrest. The unit emphasizes the conditions when Miranda warnings are to be given. The unit provides the trainee with practice in determining whether an arrest is lawful and in determining when Miranda warnings are to be given.

5.5 USE OF FORCE

This unit provides an overview of the statutory requirements regarding use of force. The concept of reasonable force is emphasized in self-defense situations, in defense of others, in law enforcement situations and in defense of premises and personal property. Through the use of simulated situations, the trainee is provided with the opportunity to evaluate whether the force used was reasonable under the circumstances. The Attorney General's guidelines prohibiting warning shots and describing sanctions a law enforcement officer may incur for the improper use of force are also covered.

5.6 LEGAL REQUIREMENTS OF SEARCHES

This unit covers the legal requirements that must exist before a search warrant can be issued, the requirements for obtaining a search warrant, and the procedures to follow in the execution of the search warrant. Exceptions to the search warrant requirement are covered including searches incident to arrest, consent searches, plain view, automobile exception and exigent circumstances. Body intrusion searches and telephonic search warrants are also covered in the unit.

5.7 EYEWITNESS IDENTIFICATION

This unit discusses the procedures which must be followed to conduct a proper show up, photo array, and lineup to ensure that the results are admissible in court. The suspect's rights and the role of counsel during these procedures are outlined. The steps necessary to compel a person not in police custody to appear in a lineup are also identified.

5.8 RULES OF EVIDENCE

This unit touches upon the basic legal concepts regarding the rules of evidence as they apply to a law enforcement officer's duties. Classification of evidence, types of evidence, witness qualification, testimonial privileges, hearsay evidence and the types of statements or evidence which may or may not be admissible in court are topics introduced in the unit. The importance of demonstrating the chain of evidence is also introduced.

5.9 ASSET FORFEITURE

This unit discusses the legal issues surrounding asset forfeiture including what can be seized and how to initiate asset forfeiture proceedings. The Attorney General's Forfeiture Guidelines are presented and investigation techniques used to enhance forfeiture proceedings are identified. Through the use of simulated situations trainees will be required to determine whether a forfeiture action against property is appropriate.

UNIT TITLE: Constitutional Rights

- 5.1 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will know the rights afforded citizens under the Bill of Rights of the United States Constitution and the New Jersey Constitution. The trainee will also understand a police officer's responsibility to safeguard those rights at all times.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 5.1.1 The trainee will explain why it is a fundamental responsibility of the police to protect the constitutional rights of all citizens
- 5.1.2 The trainee will explain the purpose of the Bill of Rights.
- 5.1.3 The trainee will describe the authority of the United States Supreme Court to interpret the United States Constitution to accommodate contemporary issues.
- 5.1.4 The trainee will describe the authority of the New Jersey Supreme Court to interpret the United States Constitution and the New Jersey Constitution.
- 5.1.5 Given a simulated situation, the trainee will determine whether an individual's First Amendment rights were violated.
- 5.1.6 Given a simulated situation, the trainee will determine whether an individual's Fourth Amendment rights were violated.
- 5.1.7 Given a simulated situation, the trainee will determine whether an individual's Fifth Amendment rights were violated.
- 5.1.8 Given a simulated situation, the trainee will determine whether an individual's Sixth Amendment rights were violated.
- 5.1.9 The trainee will explain the provision of the New Jersey Constitution regarding bail of a person accused of a criminal offense.
- 5.1.10 Given a simulated situation depicting the rights of an individual regarding bail under the New Jersey Constitution, the trainee will determine if the provisions of the New Jersey Constitution were violated.
- 5.1.11 The trainee will identify the purpose of the Exclusionary Rule and the consequences of violating a person's constitutional rights.

- 5.1.12 Given a simulated situation the trainee will determine whether evidence is admissible under the exclusionary rule.

UNIT TITLE: Probable Cause

5.2 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will understand the concept of probable cause.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

5.2.1 The trainee will define probable cause as it pertains to an arrest and a search warrant.

5.2.2 The trainee will identify sources for developing probable cause.

5.2.3 Given simulated situations, the trainee will determine whether or not there is sufficient basis for establishing probable cause. These situations will include:

- A. A civilian witness
- B. A police officer statement
- C. A criminal informant
- D. A non-criminal informant
- E. Direct observations by the police officer

UNIT TITLE: Street Encounters

5.3 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will understand the legal requirements for various street encounters.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 5.3.1 The trainee will list the rights and obligations of the law enforcement officer and citizen when engaged in voluntary conversations during an inquiry.
- 5.3.2 The trainee will identify the importance of maintaining courtesy, professionalism, and respect during a street encounter and its impact on community relations.
- 5.3.3 The trainee will identify the constitutional requirements for each of the following types of street encounters between a law enforcement officer and a citizen. These encounters will include:
 - A. Investigatory stop (Terry stop)
 - B. Investigatory detention
 - C. Arrest
- 5.3.4 The trainee will define reasonable suspicion and explain how it varies from probable cause.
- 5.3.5 The trainee will identify sources for establishing reasonable suspicion.
- 5.3.6 Given a simulated situation a trainee will distinguish between an inquiry and a Terry stop.
- 5.3.7 Given simulated situations, the trainee will identify the force options or restraints that may be used during various street encounters.
- 5.3.8 Given simulated situations depicting street encounters the trainee will determine whether or not a Miranda warning is required.
- 5.3.9 The trainee will identify the circumstances justifying a frisk, including the application of the plain touch doctrine.
- 5.3.10 Given simulated situations, the trainee will determine if justification exists to stop, question or frisk an individual and act accordingly.

- 5.3.11 The trainee will identify the authority of a police officer to detain packages in the possession of individuals, or in the possession of the U.S. Mail or private courier services.

UNIT TITLE: Legal Requirements and Procedures of Lawful Arrest

5.4 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will understand the legal requirements and procedures before and after an arrest.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 5.4.1 The trainee will identify the requirements of a legal arrest for:
- A. Indictable offense
 - B. Disorderly persons offense
- 5.4.2 Given simulated arrest situations, the trainee will identify the law enforcement officer's authority and jurisdiction as determined by statute and/or court-sanctioned authority. The situations will minimally include:
- A. Arrest within the geographic area of appointing authority
 - B. Arrest beyond the geographic area of appointing authority
 - C. Arrest based on pursuit
 - D. Arrest for motor vehicle violations
 - E. Arrest based on verbally transmitted information
 - F. Arrest based on written transmitted information
- 5.4.3 The trainee will identify the following instruments and the requirements and processes for obtaining each:
- A. Complaint
 - B. Complaint-summons (NJ/CDR-1)
 - C. Complaint-warrant (NJ/CDR-2)
- 5.4.4 Given a simulated situation, the trainee will determine whether a complaint-warrant (NJ/CDR-2) was properly accepted.
- 5.4.5 The trainee will explain the Constitutional requirements for an arrest with a warrant.
- 5.4.6 The trainee will identify the exceptions to the arrest warrant requirement.
- 5.4.7 Given simulated situations depicting various arrest situations, the trainee will identify whether an arrest is or is not lawful.

- 5.4.8 The trainee will identify the law enforcement officer's authorities and obligations in regard to:
- A. Citizen's arrest
 - B. Arrest by state conservation officers
 - C. Arrest by SPCA officers
- 5.4.9 The trainee will identify the liabilities and immunities of police officers and private citizens in making an arrest.
- 5.4.10 The trainee will identify those individuals who have immunity from arrest, specifically:
- A. Members of Congress
 - B. Members of the State Legislature
 - C. Foreign Diplomats
- 5.4.11 The trainee will identify the procedures to follow when dealing with an individual who has immunity from arrest.
- 5.4.12 The trainee will identify the conditions when Miranda warnings are to be given.
- A. Custodial interrogation
 - B. Public safety questions
 - C. Exceptions
- 5.4.13 Given simulated situations, the trainee will determine whether Miranda warnings should be given.
- 5.4.14 Given a simulated situation depicting a custodial suspect's request for an attorney, the trainee will determine the appropriate actions to take.
- 5.4.15 Given a simulated situation depicting a suspect's invocation of his or her right to remain silent, the trainee will determine the appropriate actions to take.
- 5.4.16 The trainee will identify when a suspect's Sixth Amendment right to counsel becomes effective.

UNIT TITLE: Use of Force

- 5.5 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will understand the justifications under N.J.S.A. 2C that apply to the use of force and the consequences that might result from the misuse of force.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 5.5.1 The trainee will define and give examples of:
- A. Bodily harm
 - B. Serious bodily harm
 - C. Deadly force
 - D. Unlawful force
 - E. Imminent danger
 - F. Substantial risk
 - G. Reasonable belief
- 5.5.2 The trainee will identify criteria for determining whether the use of force is reasonable.
- 5.5.3 The trainee will identify the conditions that must be met before non-deadly force may be used in self-defense.
- 5.5.4 The trainee will distinguish between use of force in resisting arrest and use of force against unlawful force during an arrest.
- 5.5.5 The trainee will identify the conditions that must be met before deadly force may be used in self-defense.
- 5.5.6 The trainee will identify the conditions that must be met before non-deadly force may be used to protect a third party.
- 5.5.7 The trainee will identify the conditions that must be met before deadly force may be used to protect a third party.
- 5.5.8 Given simulated situations, the trainee will determine whether the force used was reasonable under the circumstances. These simulated situations will include the following:
- A. Use of non-deadly force in a self-defense situation
 - B. Use of deadly force in a self-defense situation

- C. Retreat rule in a self-defense situation
 - D. Exceptions to retreat rule
 - E. Use of non-deadly force in a situation involving defense of others
 - F. Use of deadly force in a situation involving defense of others
 - G. Retreat rule in a defense of other situation
- 5.5.9 The trainee will identify the force options which may be employed in law enforcement:
- A. Constructive Authority
 - B. Physical Contact
 - C. Physical Force
 - D. Mechanical force
 - E. Deadly force
- 5.5.10 The trainee will explain how the concept of escalation of force applies to confrontation situations in law enforcement.
- 5.5.11 The trainee will identify the conditions that must be met before non-deadly force may be used by a law enforcement officer or a citizen to effect an arrest.
- 5.5.12 The trainee will identify the conditions that must be met before deadly force may be used by a law enforcement officer to effect an arrest.
- 5.5.13 The trainee will state the Attorney General's policy on warning shots.
- 5.5.14 The trainee will identify the levels of force that can be used to prevent escape of a suspect from custody.
- 5.5.15 The trainee will identify the levels of force that can be used to prevent escape from jail, prison, or a similar institution.
- 5.5.16 The trainee will identify the conditions that must be met before non-deadly force may be used to prevent suicide or the commission of a crime involving bodily harm or damage to property.
- 5.5.17 The trainee will identify the conditions that must be met before deadly force may be used to prevent suicide or the commission of a crime.

- 5.5.18 Given simulated situations, the trainee will determine whether the force used was reasonable under the circumstances. These simulated situations will include the following:
- A. Use of non-deadly force to effect an arrest
 - B. Use of deadly force to effect an arrest
 - C. Use of non-deadly force to prevent escape from arrest
 - D. Use of deadly force to prevent escape from arrest
 - E. Use of non-deadly force to prevent escape from custody
 - F. Use of deadly force to prevent escape from custody
 - G. Use of non-deadly force to prevent the commission of a crime
 - H. Use of deadly force to prevent the commission of a crime
- 5.5.19 The trainee will identify the conditions that must be met in order for force to be used in defense of premises.
- 5.5.20 The trainee will explain when a request to desist must be used in defense of premises or personal property situations.
- 5.5.21 The trainee will identify the conditions that must be met in order for non-deadly force to be used in defense of personal property.
- 5.5.22 Given simulated situations depicting defense of personal property, the trainee will determine whether the level of force is reasonable.
- 5.5.23 The trainee will list sanctions a law enforcement officer may face as a result of an improper use of force.
- 5.5.24 The trainee will identify the conditions that would justify the use of force at or from a moving vehicle.
- 5.5.25 The trainee will give examples of what an officer might do to prevent another officer from using force illegally or inappropriately.
- 5.5.26 Given a simulated situation the trainee will complete the agency authorized use of force report form.

Agency Training: 5.5.26

UNIT TITLE: Legal Requirements of Searches

- 5.6 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will understand the legal requirements that must exist before a search warrant can be issued, the procedures to follow in the execution of a search warrant and the exceptions that allow a search to be made without a search warrant. The trainee will understand the basic legal requirements regarding body intrusion searches and telephonic search warrants.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 5.6.1 The trainee will identify the Fourth Amendment requirements of a search warrant for the following:
- A. A premises
 - B. Curtilage
 - C. Open fields
 - D. Workplace
- 5.6.2 The trainee will identify those who have authority to issue a search warrant and those who must review the search warrant affidavit.
- 5.6.3 The trainee will identify the critical information necessary in an affidavit to support a search warrant.
- 5.6.4 The trainee will identify and explain the requirements for the execution of a search warrant. These will include:
- A. Secrecy
 - B. Personnel
 - C. Time
 - D. "Knock and Announce" Rule
 - E. Force
- 5.6.5 The trainee will identify the procedures for the seizure of property under a search warrant and the return of the warrant to the court.
- 5.6.6 The trainee will identify the requirements and limitations of a search incident to arrest.

- 5.6.7 Given a simulated situation involving a search with consent, the trainee will determine whether or not the search was lawful and will explain the basis for that determination.
- 5.6.8 The trainee will identify the requirements of a "plain view" seizure of contraband or evidence.
- 5.6.9 Given a simulated situation depicting a "plain view" seizure, the trainee will determine whether the requirements of the "plain view" exception were met.
- 5.6.10 Given a simulated situation, the trainee will determine the scope of a search following the custodial arrest of the vehicle's occupants.
- 5.6.11 Given a simulated situation involving the search of an automobile under the automobile exception, the trainee will determine if the search was lawful.
- 5.6.12 The trainee will identify the justifications for impounding a vehicle and inventorying its contents.
- 5.6.13 Given a simulated situation, the trainee will determine whether exigent circumstances exist to justify a warrantless search.
- 5.6.14 The trainee will identify the procedures to be followed when obtaining and executing a telephonic search warrant.
- 5.6.15 Given a simulated situation, the trainee will determine whether or not a warrantless search can be conducted based on the abandonment of property.
- 5.6.16 The trainee will identify the methods for seizure or extraction of physical evidence from a person's body.
- 5.6.17 Given a simulated situation, the trainee will determine whether strip searches or body cavity searches are justified.
- 5.6.18 The trainee will identify the criteria for the "emergent caretaker" exception to the search warrant requirement.

UNIT TITLE: Eyewitness Identification

5.7 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will know the procedures for conducting a proper show up, photo array, and lineup.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 5.7.1 The trainee will explain the conditions under which a show up would be permissible for identification purposes.
- 5.7.2 The trainee will determine when a suspect may be moved from the location where stopped and when he or she may be transported to the crime scene for identification.
- 5.7.3 The trainee will explain the proper procedures necessary to conduct a photo array so that the results will be admissible in court.
- 5.7.4 The trainee will explain the proper procedures necessary to conduct a lineup so that the results will be admissible in court.
- 5.7.5 The trainee will identify at what point in an eyewitness identification procedure a suspect has a right to counsel and explain the counsel's role during either a lineup, photo array or show up.
- 5.7.6 The trainee will explain the procedure to be followed in compelling a person not in police custody to appear for a lineup.
- 5.7.7 The trainee will identify common challenges to the accuracy of eyewitness identification.

UNIT TITLE: Rules of Evidence

5.8 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will understand the basic rules of evidence.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 5.8.1 The trainee will identify the requirements that an item of evidence must meet before it may be admitted into court.
- 5.8.2 The trainee will identify the two types of evidence.
- 5.8.3 The trainee will identify the advantages and disadvantages of direct and indirect evidence.
- 5.8.4 The trainee will identify various types of evidence to include:
 - A. Demonstrative or physical
 - 1. Instrumentality of crime
 - 2. Contraband
 - 3. Fruits of crime
 - B. Testimonial
 - C. Writings or documentary
- 5.8.5 The trainee will distinguish between presumptions and inferences as they relate to the State's burden of proof.
- 5.8.6 Given a simulated situation, the trainee will determine whether the evidence submitted is relevant.
- 5.8.7 The trainee will explain the reasons why evidence may be excluded from consideration by a jury.
- 5.8.8 The trainee will identify criteria for witness qualification.
- 5.8.9 The trainee will identify the following testimonial privileges:
 - A. Suspect's privilege
 - B. Self-incrimination
 - C. Marital
 - D. Lawyer-client

- E. Patient-physician
 - F. Clergyman-penitent
 - G. Informer's identity privilege
- 5.8.10 The trainee will define hearsay evidence.
- 5.8.11 The trainee will differentiate between "statement" and "conduct" as they pertain to the Hearsay Rule.
- 5.8.12 The trainee will identify various types of statements as to whether or not they would be admissible in court. These will minimally include:
- A. Previous statement by a witness
 - B. Spontaneous statement
 - C. Dying declaration
 - D. Admission
 - E. Adoptive admission
 - F. Business entry
 - G. Public report
- 5.8.13 Given simulated situations, the trainee will demonstrate how the evidence rule pertaining to previous statements of witnesses can be utilized to show inconsistent statements by a witness.
- 5.8.14 The trainee will distinguish between Past Recollection Recorded and Past Recollection Refreshed.
- 5.8.15 The trainee will define "chain of evidence."

UNIT TITLE: Asset Forfeiture

- 5.9 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will be able to recognize and identify circumstances where criminal conduct may give rise to asset forfeiture litigation under N.J.S.A. 2C:64 et seq., or other civil remedies including N.J.S.A. 2C:41 et seq., and will have a working knowledge of the methods of seizure and restraint and the applicable New Jersey Attorney General's regulations and guidelines.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 5.9.1 The trainee will define the following terms as they are used in forfeiture litigation.
- A. In Rem
 - B. Nexus
 - C. Proportionality
- 5.9.2 The trainee will identify what types of offenses are subject to forfeiture litigation.
- 5.9.3 The trainee will identify the content of the Attorney General's forfeiture guidelines on the following issues:
- A. Seizure of residences
 - B. Court approval for seizures
 - C. Forfeiture and the underlying offense
 - D. Disposition and forfeiture and criminal charges
- 5.9.4 Given various simulated situations and by utilizing a copy of N.J.S.A. 2C:64 et seq. and forfeiture guidelines and regulations issued by the New Jersey Attorney General, the trainee will determine whether to seek either a seizure order or a restraining order.
- 5.9.5 The trainee will identify the maximum time allowed between seizure and the filing of a verified complaint under N.J.S.A. 2C:64 et seq.

FUNCTIONAL AREA 6.0
COMMUNICATIONS

The trainee will possess the proficiency to communicate effectively and professionally through written, oral, and mechanical media.

UNIT TITLES:

6.1 NOTE TAKING AND REPORT WRITING

This unit details the importance of note taking and report writing. It points out the various uses of an officer's notes and discusses information properly included. In simulated situations trainees will have the opportunity to take notes based on specific given details.

This unit also presents those elements which are present in a satisfactory police report. It discusses the qualities of a good report and outlines those areas of information covered by a complete report. Practice in organizing and writing of a report is provided, and use of correct English and proper sentence construction is emphasized.

6.2 TELEPHONE COMMUNICATIONS

Police officer's telephone communications with different types of persons under a variety of conditions will be discussed in this unit. Effective telephone communications which project a positive police image and promote good community relations are detailed. In simulated situations, trainees will have the opportunity to respond to various types of calls from persons seeking assistance.

6.3 COMMUNICATIONS USING FLASHLIGHT, WHISTLE, AND HAND SIGNALS

This unit presents basic communication skills utilizing flashlights, whistles, and hand signals. The need for accuracy and uniformity in their use is stressed especially in traffic control assignments. Trainees will be given the opportunity to practice and demonstrate their skills in these areas.

6.4 VERBAL AND NON-VERBAL COMMUNICATIONS

This unit presents the basic problems of oral communications between the police officer and the public. It points out various essentials behind sound and responsible communications, and presents those areas in language and action which the officer should avoid when dealing with citizens. In simulated situations trainees will engage in various person-to-person conversations and confrontations, attempting to respond in a professional and respectful manner. The importance of verbal and non-verbal communications in a community oriented approach to policing will be emphasized.

6.5 POLICE RADIO COMMUNICATIONS

This unit covers the basic operation of police radio systems, both local and regional, including the Statewide Police Emergency Network (SPEN). Codes and procedures are also identified and explained.

6.6 9-1-1 EMERGENCY RESPONSE SYSTEM

This unit provides an overview of the 9-1-1 Emergency Response System including definitions of terms, capabilities of the system and the training requirements specified for personnel to serve as call takers and dispatchers.

UNIT TITLES: Note Taking and Report Writing

- 6.1 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will be able to gather and analyze relevant information and report it in an objective, clear, and concise manner that will meet the needs of the personnel using the information.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 6.1.1 The trainee will identify two purposes of the incident or investigative report.
- 6.1.2 The trainee will identify four uses of the incident or investigative report.
- 6.1.3 The trainee will identify four potential readers of the incident or investigative report.
- 6.1.4 The trainee will identify the six questions to ask in gathering information.
- 6.1.5 The trainee will identify the reasons for taking accurate field notes.
- 6.1.6 The trainee will state the employing agency's policy regarding disposition of handwritten notes.
- 6.1.7 The trainee will identify the four basic steps in effective report writing.
- 6.1.8 The trainee will identify common weaknesses in reports and report writing.
- 6.1.9 The trainee will explain the necessity for accuracy, completeness and truthfulness in a police report from both a legal and an ethical standpoint.
- 6.1.10 Given a series of simulated situation reflecting investigative techniques for various offenses, the trainee will write a minimum of three investigative reports throughout the course in an appropriate report format. This will be accomplished by:
 - A. Taking appropriate field notes
 - B. Organizing the facts in a chronological order
 - C. Relating the facts in appropriate sentence form
 - D. Eliminating unnecessary information
 - E. Ensuring that reports are clear and concise
 - F. Answering the questions who, what, when, where ,why and how
- 6.1.11 The trainee will identify and list the use of the primary report forms utilized by his or her agency.

- 6.1.12 The trainee will select and prepare interoffice correspondence on the proper form and in an acceptable manner according to the requirements of his or her agency.

Agency Training: 6.1.6, 6.1.11, 6.1.12

Practical Exercise: 6.1.10, 6.1.12

UNIT TITLE: Telephone Communications

- 6.2 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will be able to communicate in telephone conversations with all types of persons, under a variety of conditions, in a manner that will promote effective police service and foster a positive community attitude toward the police.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 6.2.1 The trainee will describe what must be accomplished by an officer in a telephone conversation in order to promote a positive police image and effective communication. This response will include:
- A. Prompt answering
 - B. Appropriate greeting and identification
 - C. Courteous listening
 - D. Accurate recording of information
 - E. Demonstrated interest and sincerity
 - F. Quick and accurate routing of calls
 - G. Provision of service or information requested
 - H. Courteous termination of call
- 6.2.2 Given simulated situations, the trainee will answer telephones and conduct telephone conversations in a professional manner that will promote positive police citizen contacts and effective service.

Practical Exercise: 6.2.2

UNIT TITLE: Communications Using Flashlight, Whistle, and Hand Signals

- 6.3 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will possess the knowledge and physical ability to enable him/her to communicate effectively with persons through the use of flashlight, whistle, and hand signals.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 6.3.1 Given a variety of practical exercises, the trainee will demonstrate his/her ability to effectively execute recognized traffic hand signals in an appropriate manner.

These signals will include as a minimum:

- A. Requiring a driver to stop
- B. Requiring a driver to go
- C. Requiring a driver to turn right
- D. Requiring a driver to turn left

- 6.3.2 Given a practical exercise, the trainee will demonstrate his/her ability to use a whistle to communicate effectively.

Minimum qualifications will include demonstrated regard for audibility limitations.

- 6.3.3 Given a practical exercise, the trainee will demonstrate his/her ability to use a flashlight to communicate effectively.

Minimum qualifications will include demonstrated regard for visibility limitations.

UNIT TITLE: Verbal and Non-Verbal Communications

- 6.4 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will communicate with various segments of the public in such a way as to enhance effective police service and a positive community attitude toward the police. He/she will understand the importance and impact of non-verbal communications on the communications process and the importance of interpersonal communication in community policing.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 6.4.1 Given simulated situations of interaction with the public, the trainee will communicate orally in clear, correct English and in a calm, confident manner.
- 6.4.2 The trainee will identify those language factors which would contribute to a negative response from the public. These factors will include:
- A. Profanity
 - B. Derogatory language
 - C. Ethnically offensive terminology
 - D. Slang
- 6.4.3 The trainee will explain the impact of non-verbal communications on what is said verbally.
- 6.4.4 The trainee will identify those non-language factors which would contribute to a negative response from the public. These factors will include:
- A. Officious and oppressive manner
 - B. Disrespectful attitude/arrogance
 - C. Officious tone of voice
 - D. Use of body language
- 6.4.5 The trainee will demonstrate the controls of both voice and body which are required for effective and positive police interaction with the public.
- 6.4.6 Given simulated stressful situations of interaction with the public, the student will communicate properly and effectively with the following types of persons:
- A. Hostile
 - B. Angry
 - C. Hysterical/scared

- D. Intoxicated
 - E. Deranged
 - F. Very young
 - G. Very old
 - H. Racist
 - I. Someone who knows little or no English
 - J. Speech and Hearing impaired
- 6.4.7 Given a simulated situation, the trainee will take field notes during an interview in a manner that will not discourage the interviewee from talking.
- 6.4.8 Given a practical exercise, the trainee will demonstrate his/her ability to communicate effectively with members of minority ethnic groups within the jurisdiction of his/her agency.

Practical Exercise: 6.4.1, 6.4.5, 6.4.6, 6.4.7, 6.4.8

Agency Training: 6.4.8

UNIT TITLE: Police Radio Communications

- 6.5 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will become familiar with basic procedures for operating police radio systems, including operation of the mobile radio and base radio station used by local and regional networks.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 6.5.1 The trainee will identify the purpose of the police radio system.
- 6.5.2 The trainee will demonstrate the use of the mobile radio. This will include the following:
- A. Transmitting and receiving
 - B. Codes
 - C. Style of broadcast
 - 1. Brevity
 - 2. Clarity
 - D. Logging assignments
- 6.5.3 The trainee will describe the Statewide Police Emergency Network (SPEN), identify the functions of each channel, and explain the circumstances when SPEN can be used most effectively.

Practical Exercise: 6.5.2

UNIT TITLE: 9-1-1 Emergency Response System

- 6.6 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will understand the capabilities of the 9-1-1 Emergency Response System and how the system can assist the police officer.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 6.6.1 The trainee will explain the following terms used in conjunction with the 9-1-1 system.
- A. Public Safety Answering Point (PSAP)
 - B. Public Safety Dispatch Point (PSDP)
 - C. Selective routing
 - D. Abandoned calls
 - E. Enhanced 9-1-1 service
- 6.6.2 The trainee will identify the capabilities of the 9-1-1 system to include:
- A. Automatic number identification (ANI)
 - B. Automatic location identification (ALI)
 - C. No busy signal
 - D. Calls from speech and hearing impaired residents(TDD)
 - E. Dispatching of fire fighting, emergency medical, law enforcement, or other emergency services.
- 6.6.3 The trainee will identify the role of the police officer in the 9-1-1 Emergency Response System and what specialized training is required to serve as (1) a call taker and (2) a dispatcher.

FUNCTIONAL AREA 7.0
VEHICLE OPERATIONS

The trainee will possess the attitudes, knowledge, and skills to operate a police vehicle safely and legally under all operating conditions.

UNIT TITLES:

7.1 FACTORS AFFECTING ACCIDENT PROBABILITY

This unit describes the common factors that contribute to motor vehicle accidents. It discusses driver attitudes, concepts of driving, driving hazards, and vehicle operations that specifically pertain to police driving.

7.2 LEGAL REQUIREMENTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF POLICE DURING EMERGENCY AND PURSUIT DRIVING

This unit examines the various aspects of pursuit driving and emergency driving, including agency policy, actions to be taken upon beginning a pursuit, and factors to be considered in determining whether to initiate, continue or abandon a pursuit as outlined in the Attorney Generals Police Vehicular Pursuit Policy. The unit also identifies measures that should be taken by the driver of an emergency vehicle to reduce the possibility of an accident while responding to an emergency and the legal aspects of operating an emergency vehicle under emergency conditions. Practice in completing a pursuit incident report is also included.

7.3 LOCAL AGENCY VEHICULAR PURSUIT POLICY AND PROCEDURES

This unit relates to the local agency's policies in vehicular pursuit and emergency driving.

7.4 INSPECTION AND VEHICULAR MAINTENANCE

This unit discusses vehicle maintenance and the importance of pre-shift mechanical inspection of a police vehicle.

7.5 VEHICLE CONTROL TECHNIQUES

This unit examines types of skids, and other emergency maneuvers that affect the driver's control of a motor vehicle. The ability to maintain control of the vehicle during an emergency is stressed.

UNIT TITLE: Factors Affecting Accident Probability

- 7.1 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will understand the factors that make the officer susceptible to vehicle accidents.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 7.1.1 The trainee will identify causes of common driver errors that contribute to the occurrence of traffic accidents.

These errors will minimally include:

- A. Impaired judgment as a result of alcohol or narcotics use
- B. Misinterpretation of driving situations and conditions
- C. Lack of control in emergency situations

- 7.1.2 The trainee will define preoccupation, its causes, and the hazards it presents.

- 7.1.3 The trainee will identify the components of defensive driving.

These will include:

- A. Driver attitude
- B. Driver skill
- C. Vehicle capability
- D. Driving conditions

- 7.1.4 The trainee will define and distinguish between the following terms: reaction distance, reaction time, braking distance, total stopping distance.

- 7.1.5 The trainee will explain how speed affects the handling and the total stopping distance of a vehicle.

The explanation will include :

- A. Effect of speed on total stopping distance
- B. Effect of speed on turning movements

- 7.1.6 The trainee will identify the driving situations where most collisions involving police vehicles occur.

These will minimally include:

- A. Driving through intersections
- B. Passing
- C. Backing up
- D. Right of way violations

7.1.7 The trainee will explain why a police driver should rely on caution, skill, an understanding of human capabilities, and the capabilities of the vehicle, when operating a vehicle at high speed rather than emergency warning devices on the police vehicle to reduce the chances of an accident.

UNIT TITLE: Legal Requirements and Responsibilities of Police During Emergency and Pursuit Driving

7.2 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will understand the state laws which identify the legal requirements and responsibilities of a police officer when operating an emergency vehicle under emergency conditions. The trainee will understand the provisions of the Attorney Generals Police Vehicular Pursuit Policy. The trainee will understand the common factors involved in determining whether to initiate, continue, or terminate a pursuit. The trainee will know the vehicular pursuit restrictions contained in the Attorney Generals Police Vehicular Pursuit Policy and the sanctions which can be imposed for improperly operating a vehicle under emergency and under pursuit conditions. The trainee will understand the importance of demonstrating a public safety attitude while performing emergency and pursuit driving. The trainee will be able to complete a pursuit incident report.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 7.2.1 The trainee will summarize the major components of the state motor vehicle code concerning emergency driving.
- 7.2.2 The trainee will summarize the major provisions of the Attorney Generals Police Vehicular Pursuit Policy to include the following:
- A. Definitions
 - B. When an officer may pursue
 - C. When an officer shall terminate a pursuit
 - D. Role of the pursuing officer and supervisor
 - E. Pursuit restrictions
 - F. Interjurisdictional pursuits
 - G. Pursuit report requirements
 - H. Use of authorized tire deflation devices
- 7.2.3 The trainee will identify a Police officer's responsibilities regarding emergency driving.
- 7.2.4 The trainee will identify additional responsibilities of a police officer before initiating and during a pursuit.
- 7.2.5 The trainee will identify the responsibilities of the designated field supervisor during a pursuit.

- 7.2.6 The trainee will list those factors to be considered in determining whether to initiate, continue, terminate or reinstate a pursuit.

These factors will minimally include:

- A. Hazards presented
- B. Environmental conditions
- C. Condition of equipment and drivers, skills
- D. Offenses committed or suspected
- E. Pursuit involving multiple vehicles
- F. Pursuit involving multiple jurisdictions
- G. Criteria for termination of pursuits according to the Attorney General's Policy
- H. Department policy
- I. Community relations implications and perceptions

- 7.2.7 The trainee will explain those actions to be taken upon beginning a pursuit.

The explanation will minimally include:

- A. Use of emergency warning devices
- B. Notification to communications and supervising officer
- C. Recording of suspect's license plate number
- D. Consideration of hazardous actions a fleeing suspect might take during pursuit

- 7.2.8 The trainee will identify the measures that should be taken by the driver of an emergency vehicle to reduce the likelihood of an accident while responding to an emergency.

The response will minimally include:

- A. Proper use of emergency warning devices
- B. Slowing or stopping for intersections
- C. Slowing before curves, then accelerating as curve permits
- D. Passing other vehicles on the left
- E. Using well-planned routes of travel

- 7.2.9 The trainee will identify additional measures that should be taken by the driver of a police vehicle to reduce the likelihood of an accident while conducting a vehicle pursuit.

The response will minimally include:

- A. Following distance
 - B. Speed and vehicle positioning
 - C. Communication tactics
 - D. Maintenance of responsible pursuit behavior demonstrating a public safety attitude in response to the challenge of a fleeing driver
- 7.2.10 The trainee will identify the vehicular pursuit restrictions that are contained in the Attorney Generals Police Vehicular Pursuit Policy.
- 7.2.11 The trainee will identify the criteria for establishing a roadblock and who may establish a roadblock.
- 7.2.12 The trainee will list sanctions an individual may face as a result of improper actions during emergency or pursuit driving.
- A. Departmental
 - B. Civil
 - C. Criminal
- 7.2.13 Given simulated situations depicting the conditions of a pursuit, the trainee will identify acceptable methods and strategies to be used when initiating, conducting, and terminating a vehicle pursuit and will complete the Police Pursuit Incident Report.
- 7.2.14 Given simulated situations depicting the conditions of a pursuit, the trainee will demonstrate on a driving course acceptable methods and strategies to be used when initiating, conducting, and terminating a vehicle pursuit and will complete the required Police Pursuit Incident Report.

UNIT TITLES: Local Agency Vehicular Pursuit Policy and Procedures

7.3 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will understand his/her agency's policies and procedures regarding vehicular pursuit.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

7.3.1 The trainee will explain his/her agency's vehicular pursuit policy.

The explanation shall include:

- A. Criteria for initiation of a pursuit
- B. Criteria for terminating a pursuit
- C. Use of emergency warning devices (sirens, flashing lights, etc.)
- D. Departmental vehicular pursuit procedures

Agency Training: 7.3.1

UNIT TITLE: Inspection and Vehicle Maintenance

7.4 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will possess the knowledge and skills necessary to perform needed vehicle maintenance and inspections.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

7.4.1 The trainee will identify the main objectives of a vehicle inspection and maintenance program.

These objectives will minimally include:

- A. Prevention of accidents
- B. Promotion of operational efficiency
- C. Reduction of maintenance and repair costs

7.4.2 Given a copy of an inspection checklist, the trainee will be able to explain the procedures for a thorough inspection of a motor vehicle.

These procedures will minimally include:

- A. When to check the vehicle
- B. Where to check the vehicle
- C. How to check the vehicle

UNIT TITLE: Vehicle Control Techniques

7.5 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will possess the knowledge and skills necessary to perform various behind the wheel maneuvers.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

7.5.1 The trainee will explain the correct driving techniques for various operating situations.

These situations will minimally include:

- A. Parallel parking
- B. Evasive maneuver
- C. Controlled braking
- D. Skid control
- E. Off-road recovery
- F. Blowouts
- G. Low light and night driving conditions
- H. Negotiating intersections
- I. Backing up skills
- J. Negotiating curves
- K. Adverse weather conditions

7.5.2 The trainee will demonstrate his/her ability to perform various driving techniques for handling common highway emergencies.

Critical Training: 7.5.1, 7.5.2

FUNCTIONAL AREA 8.0
EMERGENCY MEDICAL CARE

UNIT TITLE:

8.6 FIRST RESPONDER TRAINING

This Unit requires the trainee to successfully complete the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) First Responder: National Standard Curriculum and either the American Heart Association Basic Life Support Course C, Healthcare Provider Course, the American Red Cross CPR for the Professional Rescuer Course, or the National Safety Council Professional Rescuer Course. This unit includes the following from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration First Responder: National Standard Curriculum:

1. Introduction to EMS Systems
2. The Well-Being of the First Responder
3. Legal and Ethical Issues
4. The Human Body
5. Lifting and Moving Patients
6. Airway (including supplemental instructional material pertaining to the delivery. of oxygen)
7. Patient Assessment
8. Circulation
9. Medical Emergencies
10. Bleeding and Soft Tissue Injuries
11. Injuries to Muscles and Bones
12. Childbirth
13. Infants and Children
14. EMS Operations

UNIT TITLE: First Responder Training

- 8.6 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will develop the skills and knowledge necessary to administer emergency medical care as specified in the First Responder: National Standard Curriculum issued by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 8.6.1 The trainee will successfully complete the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) First Responder: National Standard Curriculum. If a school director prefers to use an alternative program, the school director must submit a request for program variation to the Police Training Commission for approval.

Successful completion of the NHTSA First Responder: National Standard Curriculum will be demonstrated by obtaining an average score of 70% on written examinations, other than those covering cardiopulmonary resuscitation, and exhibiting competency, as determined by the lead instructor, in the practical exercises included in the First Responder: National Standard Curriculum.

Additionally, the trainee will successfully complete the requirements of either the American Heart Association Basic Life Support Course C, Health Care Provider Course, the American Red Cross CPR for the Professional Rescuer Course, or the National Safety Council Professional Rescuer Course.

FUNCTIONAL AREA 9.0
WEAPONRY AND UNARMED DEFENSE

The trainee will possess the basic knowledge and psychomotor skills to exercise competency in the use of firearms, ancillary police weaponry, and unarmed defense.

UNIT TITLES:

9.1 FIREARMS SAFETY

This unit stresses firearms safety requirements.

9.2 HANDGUN AND SHOTGUN

This unit requires the trainee to identify agency authorized firearms, the major parts of the service handgun, and ammunition capabilities. The unit also covers the care and cleaning of the agency authorized handgun and shotgun.

9.3 SHOOTING PRINCIPLES

This unit covers the principles of good marksmanship (handgun and shotgun).

9.4 RANGE EXERCISES

This Unit requires the trainee to demonstrate proficiency in using the agency authorized handgun and shotgun both in daylight and under night time conditions.

9.5 CHEMICAL AGENT DEVICES

This unit acquaints the trainee with the types of chemical agent devices and their effects. Trainees will be asked to identify local agency policies regarding the use of these devices. They will also learn to select chemical agent devices that would be appropriate to use in given hypothetical situations.

9.6 UNARMED DEFENSE

This unit will cover the principles underlying basic weaponless defense. The trainee will learn to use body parts as defensive weapons and will become familiar with the vulnerable parts of the body. The unit will also include disarming techniques and tactics to increase the officer's capability for self-protection.

9.7 BATON TECHNIQUES

This unit identifies the low and high risk vulnerable areas of the body, covers the basic techniques of using the baton, and develops an awareness of the consequences that might result from inappropriate use of the weapon.

9.7(a) SIDE-HANDLED BATON TECHNIQUES

This unit identifies the low and high risk vulnerable areas of the body, covers the basic techniques of using the side handle baton, and develops an awareness of the consequences that might result from inappropriate use of the weapon.

9.7(b) GRIP-ACTION RESTRAINING DEVICE TECHNIQUES

This unit identifies the low and high risk vulnerable areas of the body, covers the basic techniques of using the grip action restraining device, and develops an awareness of the consequences that might result from inappropriate use of the weapon.

UNIT TITLE: Firearms Safety

9.1 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will handle weapons in a safe manner.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

9.1.1 The trainee will demonstrate the safe handling of handguns and shotguns.

This will minimally be done under the following conditions/situations:

- A. Securing all agency authorized shotguns and on and off duty handguns at all times
- B. Loading and unloading revolvers, semi automatic pistols, and manual and autoloading shotguns
- C. Utilizing authorized agency loading devices or bullet loops (Authorized agency loading device may include speed loaders, speed strips, and bullet pouches.)
- D. Holstering and drawing authorized agency handguns
- E. Inspecting weapons
- F. Operating weapons storage mechanisms in agency authorized vehicles and in authorized agency storage areas
- G. Clearing malfunctions

Agency Training: 9.1.1 (F)

Critical Training: 9.1.1

UNIT TITLE: Handgun and Shotgun

- 9.2 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will identify the firearms/ammunition authorized for his/her agency's use and explain the mechanical functions, capabilities, and maintenance of these weapons.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 9.2.1 The trainee will identify those firearms and ammunition his/her agency authorizes for both on and off duty use.
- 9.2.2 The trainee will identify the major parts of his/her service handgun and explain its basic mechanical functions.
- 9.2.3 The trainee will name the major parts of his/her agency's shotgun(s) and describe its basic mechanical functions.
- 9.2.4 The trainee will describe the effective range and lethal capabilities of the agency handgun(s) and shotgun(s).
- 9.2.5 The trainee will demonstrate the ability to clean his/her service handgun and agency shotgun effectively.

Critical Training: 9.2.5

Agency Training: 9.2.1

UNIT TITLE: Shooting Principles

- 9.3 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will understand recognized shooting principles and will demonstrate the techniques of good marksmanship with the agency-approved handgun and shotgun.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 9.3.1 The trainee will explain the principles of good marksmanship and will demonstrate the techniques with a handgun and shotgun. The presentation will minimally include:

- A. Stance
- B. Grip
- C. Breath control
- D. Sight alignment
- E. Trigger control
- F. Follow through

- 9.3.2 The trainee will demonstrate commonly recognized handgun shooting positions.

These positions will minimally include:

- A. Prone
- B. Standing (barricade, strong and weak hand)
- C. Kneeling (barricade, strong and weak hand)
- D. Point shoulder (with or without barricade)
- E. Natural point
- F. Isosceles stance
- G. Weaver stance
- H. Weapon retention

- 9.3.3 The trainee will demonstrate the standing, strong shoulder shooting position with his/her shotgun.

- 9.3.4 The trainee will demonstrate loading techniques with his/her shotgun.

These techniques will minimally include:

- A. Administrative loading
- B. Combat loading

UNIT TITLE: Range Exercises

- 9.4 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will develop shooting proficiency with the service handgun and will undergo training with the agency shotgun.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 9.4.1 The trainee, given both day and night range exercises, will load, empty, and reload his/her service handgun and shotgun, using authorized ammunition* and his/her authorized agency loading device and/or bullet loops worn by the officer on duty.
*Authorized ammunition can include dummy ammunition during these loading and unloading exercises.
- 9.4.2 In daylight, using agency service ammunition, the trainee will achieve an average of no less than 80% of a possible perfect score (100%) for three consecutive firings of the Handgun Qualification Course (HQC), as set forth in the Police Training Commission Basic Course Firearms Manual.
- 9.4.3 Deleted - February 1991.
- 9.4.4 Under subdued lighting conditions, the trainee will fire the Handgun Night Training Course as set forth in the Police Training Commission Basic Course Firearms Manual.
- 9.4.5 In daylight and under subdued lighting conditions, the trainee will fire the Shotgun Training Course (STC) as set forth in the Police Training Commission Basic Course Firearms Manual.

UNIT TITLE: Chemical Agent Devices

- 9.5 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will identify types, capabilities, and limitations of various chemical agent devices and will explain local agency policies. The chemical agent devices will include oleoresin capsicum (OC).

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 9.5.1 The trainee will identify various chemical agent devices and describe the capabilities and limitations of each. The chemical agent devices will include oleoresin capsicum (OC).
- 9.5.2 The trainee will describe his/her agency's policies regarding the utilization of each chemical agent device used by the agency.
- 9.5.3 The trainee will explain the factors to be considered in the decision to use a chemical agent.

The factors to be explained will minimally include:

- A. Situation e.g., single individual, crowd, an attacking animal
 - B. Characteristics of the chemical agent in relation to the circumstances presented
 - C. Environment
 - D. Avenues of escape
 - E. Preparedness and capabilities of control force
- 9.5.4 Given a description of a series of situations calling for the use of chemical agents and including the factors that would influence the type of agents to be used, the trainee will identify the types of agent(s) to be used dictated by the facts.

The situations will include a description of a person attacking an officer with OC spray. The trainee will determine whether the officer is justified in using deadly force in response to the OC attack.

- 9.5.5 The trainee will identify safety precautions associated with carrying OC:
- A. Before using OC
 - B. When drawing OC
 - C. When reholstering OC
 - D. When other officers are present.

- 9.5.6 Describe OC spraying techniques
- A. Vertical spray
 - B. Horizontal spray
 - C. Circular spray
 - D. Duration.
- 9.5.7 The trainee will identify advantages and disadvantages of carrying OC on the strong side and on the weak side.
- 9.5.8 Given simulated situations, the trainee will identify and practice the verbal commands to be used before, during and after confrontations involving the use of OC.
- 9.5.9 The trainee will identify circumstances when OC should not be used. These circumstances will minimally include:
- A. Vicinity of infants
 - B. Vicinity of juveniles under age 12
 - C. Vicinity of the elderly
 - D. Against certain persons in custody or in restraining devices
 - E. Against persons operating a motor vehicle or occupying a motor vehicle capable of being operated
 - F. Use of OC may pose a greater risk than an alternative method of physical force
- 9.5.10 The trainee will identify after care procedures to be taken when a suspect has been sprayed with OC.
- A. Providing assistance to the person sprayed to alleviate the effects of OC and to preclude positional asphyxia
 - B. Monitoring indications of potential in-custody deaths
 - C. Monitoring suspect until symptoms disappear
 - D. Identifying whether medical treatment should be obtained
 - E. Informing custodians of detention facilities that the individual has recently been sprayed with OC.
- 9.5.11 The trainee will identify indicators that medical treatment should be obtained. These indicators will minimally include:
- A. Display of physical symptoms other than a slight reddening of the skin
 - B. Complaint of an inordinate amount of pain
 - C. Symptoms present for more than 30 minutes
 - D. Presence of respiratory disease

- 9.5.12 Given a simulated situation involving the application of OC, the trainee will complete an OC application report.

Agency Training: 9.5.2

Critical Training: 9.5.9, 9.5.11

UNIT TITLES: Unarmed Defense

- 9.6 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will demonstrate an operational level of skill in applying basic defensive techniques.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 9.6.1 The trainee will identify vulnerable areas of the body and tell the possible results of a blow to each of those areas.
- 9.6.2 The trainee will identify those parts of the body which can be used as weapons.
- 9.6.3 The trainee will apply the principles of balance, leverage, concentration of power, and use of the opponent's power to block, escape, and counter the holds of an adversary.
- 9.6.4 The trainee will demonstrate proficiency of at least one come-along hold.
- 9.6.5 The trainee will demonstrate a take-down tactic.
- 9.6.6 The trainee will demonstrate familiarity with specialized defensive tactics that increase the officer's capability for self-protection.

NOTE: These may cover techniques of approaching a suspect and the position of arrest; defense from the ground; weapon retention; and using disarming techniques as a last resort.

- 9.6.7 The trainee will show, in a simulated situation, how to approach a suspect to make an arrest.
- 9.6.8 The trainee will demonstrate defensive techniques an officer can use from the ground.
- 9.6.9 Given a practical exercise, the trainee will demonstrate a method of dealing with an attempt to disarm him.
- 9.6.10 The trainee will explain the circumstances under which an officer might attempt to disarm an assailant.
- 9.6.11 Given a practical exercise, the trainee will demonstrate the disarming techniques that an officer might be forced to attempt when no other alternative is possible.

Critical Training: 9.6.1, 9.6.3, 9.6.6, 9.6.9

Practical Exercise: 9.6.4, 9.6.5, 9.6.6, 9.6.7, 9.6.8, 9.6.9, 9.6.11

UNIT TITLE: Baton Techniques

- 9.7 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will develop an operational level of skill in using the baton and will know when and how to apply the tactical and legal principles and techniques in police work with an emphasis on the concept of reasonable force.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 9.7.1 The trainee will name the parts of the baton.
- 9.7.2 The trainee will explain the proper purpose and function of the baton in police work and will outline the possible consequences of inappropriate use.
- 9.7.3 The trainee will identify the vulnerable parts of the body where a baton blow:
- A. can produce pain or incapacitation with minimum risk of permanent injury
 - B. can cause permanent injury or death.
- 9.7.4 The trainee will demonstrate the ability to control and use the baton effectively with the minimum amount of force necessary in a given situation.
- 9.7.5 The trainee will demonstrate the proper drawing and closing techniques of the expandable straight baton if issued by the employing agency.

Critical Training: 9.7.3, 9.7.4, 9.7.5

Practical Exercise: 9.7.4, 9.7.5

UNIT TITLE: Side-Handled Baton Techniques

- 9.7(a) UNIT GOAL: The trainee will develop an operational level of skill in using the side-handled police baton and will know when and how to apply the tactical and legal principles and techniques in police work with an emphasis on the concept of reasonable force.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 9.7(a).1 The trainee will name the parts of the side-handled baton.
- 9.7(a).2 The trainee will explain the proper purpose and function of the side-handled police baton in police work and will outline the possible consequences of inappropriate use.
- 9.7(a).3 The trainee will identify the vulnerable parts of the body where a side-handled police baton blow:
1. Can produce pain or incapacitation with minimum risk of permanent injury
 2. Can cause permanent injury or death.
- 9.7(a).4 The trainee will demonstrate the ability to control and use the side-handled baton effectively with the minimum amount of force necessary in a given situation.
- 9.7(a).5 The trainee will demonstrate the proper drawing and closing techniques of the expandable side-handled baton if issued by the employing agency.

Critical Training: 9.7(a).3, 9.7(a).4, 9.7(a).5

Practical Exercise: 9.7(a).4, 9.7(a).5

UNIT TITLE: Grip-Action Restraining Device Techniques

- 9.7(b) UNIT GOAL: The trainee will develop an operational level of skill in using the grip-action restraining device and will know when and how to apply the tactical and legal principles and techniques in police work with an emphasis on the concept of reasonable force.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 9.7(b).1 The trainee will name the parts of the grip-action restraining device.
- 9.7(b).2 The trainee will explain the proper purpose and function of the grip-action restraining device in police work and will outline the possible consequences of inappropriate use.
- 9.7(b).3 The trainee will identify the vulnerable parts of the body where a grip-action restraining device blow:
- A. can produce pain or incapacitation with minimum risk of permanent injury
 - B. can cause permanent injury or death.
- 9.7(b).4 The trainee will demonstrate the ability to control and use the grip-action restraining device effectively with the minimum amount of force necessary in a given situation.

Critical Training: 9.7(b).3, 9.7(b).4

Practical Exercise: 9.7(b).4, 9.7(b).5

FUNCTIONAL AREA 10.0
PATROL CONCEPTS

The trainee will possess the skills and knowledge to perform the patrol function safely and effectively.

UNIT TITLES:

10.1 PATROL

This unit introduces two basic patrol strategies and the major types of police patrol as well as the chief advantages and rationale for each type. It covers preventive patrol methods and defines selective enforcement. Factors determining the size of beat and shift assignment of personnel are examined. Advantages of foot patrol and motorized patrol are compared.

10.2 OBSERVATION AND PERCEPTION

This unit focuses on perception and observation skills. It is designed to help the officer develop basic techniques in observation and perception. It provides a variety of approaches to develop these skills.

10.3 PATROL TECHNIQUES

This unit focuses on techniques and procedures which should increase a police officer's capability to prevent and detect crime while on patrol. It describes systematic planning techniques for determining patrol routes, identifying beat problem situations, and vehicle check out procedures. Patrol officer's proper reaction when encountering a plainclothes officer in the field is also given. Trainee's agency policies for determining "holds" on persons or property and mutual aid and jurisdiction are investigated.

10.4 PEDESTRIAN SUSPECT APPROACH AND CONTACT

This unit focuses on procedures used by a police officer on foot or in a police vehicle, when initiating pedestrian contacts and stopping suspicious pedestrians. Criteria are detailed for determining whether or not to make a stop and when and where to make a stop. Trainees will be given practice in proper and safe stopping techniques.

10.5 VEHICLE PULLOVER TECHNIQUES

This unit presents the police procedures utilized in making a vehicle pullover and stop. Potential hazards incurred by officers, passenger, and vehicles are detailed. Through simulated situations, trainees will be given practice in properly doing the following

- A. Recording, transmitting, and utilizing information obtained about a vehicle to be stopped
- B. Determining the appropriate distance for initiating a stop
- C. Gaining attention of the driver
- D. Using spotlight and flashlight
- E. Positioning police vehicle
- F. Approaching a stopped vehicle
- G. Obtaining and determining the acceptability of identification
- H. Enhancing communication and cooperation between driver officer and passenger officer or backup officer
- I. Removing suspects from stopped vehicle in arrest stops
- J. Selection of location

Specific information is given on applying pullover techniques to motorcycles, campers and vans, buses and trucks.

10.6 SEARCH OF SUSPECTS

This unit focuses on six types of searches: (1) the visual cursory search, (2) the pat-down search, (3) the standing search, (4) the kneeling search, (5) the prone search, and (6) the strip search. Officer safety and the effectiveness of the search are stressed in situations involving single and multiple suspects as well as suspects of the opposite sex of the officer. The role of the covering officer is detailed.

10.7 SEARCH OF VEHICLES

This unit presents the procedures to follow in making a safe and effective vehicle search for contraband and concealed weapons. Techniques for the removal and control of suspects from a vehicle are also presented.

10.8 SEARCH OF BUILDINGS OR AREAS

This unit focuses on the elements of a safe and effective search for a suspect in a building, in a residential area or in a business district. It describes the importance of containing the building and area. Techniques of a systematic search with emphasis on different search patterns are given. In simulated situations trainees will be given practice in searching a building and the deployment of practice in searching a building and the deployment of additional manpower when such deployment is necessary.

10.9 HANDCUFFING

This unit deals with the principles and purposes of handcuffing. Safe and effective methods of handcuffing single and multiple suspects are detailed. Procedures for handcuffing suspects who merit special handling are described.

10.10 TRANSPORTATION OF PRISONERS

This unit instructs the trainee on the proper techniques for safely transporting single and multiple prisoners. It details approaches for officers working alone or with a partner and describes methods for handling prisoners who warrant special considerations. The trainee will need to identify the procedures used in his/her local agency.

10.11 PRISONER PROCESSING AND PRISONERS' RIGHTS

This unit deals with the booking of adult prisoners and the processing of juveniles, rights of prisoners and the law. The trainee will examine local agency requirements regarding issuing receipts for personal property taken from prisoners and the legal rights of prisoners immediately after booking. Particular attention will be paid to those prisoners who warrant special consideration. Prisoner suicide prevention techniques are also covered

10.12 RELEASING PRISONERS FROM CUSTODY

This unit deals with the procedures for releasing adult prisoners and juveniles in custody in conformance with local agency policy, rights of prisoners and the law. Conditions are outlined under which a lawfully arrested prisoner may be released.

10.13 TACTICAL CONSIDERATIONS FOR CRIMES-IN-PROGRESS

This unit deals with the principles and procedures of responding to reports of crimes-in-progress. Tactical considerations such as approach routes, use of vehicle, approach techniques and coordination of other units are described. Three types of calls robbery, burglary and report of a prowler are given special attention.

10.14 HANDLING DISTURBANCES, DISPUTES AND DOMESTIC VIOLENCE SITUATIONS

This unit covers disturbances, disputes and domestic violence and identifies the basic responsibilities of the officer. The unit prepares the officer for the dangers in handling emotionally charged confrontations and provides approaches for handling them. Trainees will have the opportunity to practice responding to relevant simulated situations and to prepare a Domestic Violence Report. The unit also covers procedures for the seizure of weapons in domestic violence cases.

10.15 CIVIL DISPUTES

This unit introduces the concepts of civil law relative to landlord-tenant disputes and labor disputes and the proper procedures for handling these and other forms of civil complaints.

10.16 MISSING PERSONS

This unit deals with the proper procedures for initial action taken by a police officer in cases involving missing persons, both adult and juvenile. Emphasis is placed on the categories of missing persons including those reported as endangered, disabled, involuntary, juveniles and disaster victims. Special factors will be considered in cases of missing children. The unit shows how age and condition of the missing person determines the action to be taken by police officers.

10.17 HANDLING SICK, INJURED, AND DECEASED PERSONS

This unit concentrates on trainee's agency policy relative to handling sick, injured or dead persons. It includes procedures for rendering first aid, legal death determination, searching bodies and the function of the New Jersey State Medical Examiner.

10.18 HANDLING ANIMALS

This unit focuses on the procedures to be followed by an officer when handling vicious, sick or injured animals. Trainees will be asked to research and outline their local agency's policies concerning the handling of animal bite cases and the disposition of sick or injured animals.

10.19 VEHICLE IMPOUND AND STORAGE

This unit discusses the employing agency's policy and procedures for storing and impounding vehicles. The trainee will prepare necessary reports in conformance with local agency procedures and NJ legal precedent.

10.20 SNIPER AND AMBUSHES

This unit identifies and explains various techniques and tactical procedures to minimize the probability of a police officer being ambushed, counter actions while under attack and use of the police vehicle as a protective device to reduce the risk of serious injury. It details procedures for taking cover, use of weapons, containment of the attack area and protection of bystanders, vehicle maneuvers through the "kill zone" and tactics one can utilize when a fire bomb strikes a police vehicle. The trainee will be able to identify the types of attacks one might encounter, and in simulated situations of ambush attacks, react in a safe and effective manner.

10.21 UNUSUAL OCCURRENCES, DISASTERS, AND ACCIDENTS

This unit examines responsibilities of a police officer at natural disasters or acts of terrorism. Such incidents include floods, aircraft crashes, structural collapses or explosions and other unusual occurrences. It describes the procedures to be followed by the first police unit to arrive at the scene. Agency policy relating to these incidents is also covered.

10.22 FIRE

This unit deals with emergent fires in which immediate action should be taken by the police. Major groups of fire types are described, and extinguishing techniques for each are identified. Dangers inherent when entering a burning building are detailed with special attention focused on ways of determining whether a building is safe to enter. Safe and effective ways of entering and leaving a burning building and searching for possible victims are given.

10.23 RIOT AND CROWD CONTROL

This unit deals with the basic principles of crowd and riot control. Tactics of crowd and riot control will be described and demonstrated. Trainees will participate in the basic crowd and riot control formations. The importance of team work is stressed.

10.24 VICTIM/WITNESS SERVICES

This unit emphasizes the importance of victim witness assistance in law enforcement. It provides the trainee with an understanding of the needs and rights of crime victims and witnesses and also identifies for the trainee a variety of resources available to assist crime victims and witnesses. The unit also includes recommended guidelines for the death notification process.

10.25 NEWS MEDIA RELATIONS

This unit examines the relationship between the news media and the police, and the rights and responsibilities of both in the dissemination of information when a news-worthy event occurs. It describes agency news release procedures, explains federal and state laws on free press and identifies information which could be prejudicial to an individual if released to news media. The trainee will be able to recognize official press credentials and explain police procedures regarding admittance of news media personnel across police lines.

10.26 CONTROLLING EXPOSURE TO BLOODBORNE PATHOGENS

This unit discusses the ways in which the Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV) is transmitted and the precautions a police officer should take to minimize the risk of infection. Emphasis is placed on precautionary procedures an officer should take when faced with the specific hazards which arise during the performance of his or her duties including searches, evidence collection, human bites and body removal. Additionally the responsibilities of an employer under the PEOSH Bloodborne Pathogens Standard are discussed, as well as the rights of a police officer under the Ryan White Comprehensive AIDS Emergency Act.

10.27 TERRORISM AND THE NEW JERSEY LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER

This unit provides an overview of terrorism, why it is used, and how it differs from typical criminal activity. This unit then reviews the roles of the New Jersey Office of Counter-Terrorism and the F.B.I. Joint Task Force. Emphasis is placed on the role of the local law enforcement officer and the interaction between the officer and these agencies.

10.28 INTERNATIONAL TERRORIST THREATS

This unit discusses the basis of different types of international terrorist organizations and the types of threats they pose to the United States.

10.29 DOMESTIC TERRORIST THREATS

This unit identifies the threats to the United States posed by domestic terrorist groups. The emphasis is placed on practical information a law enforcement officer should have in order to identify and deal with potentially dangerous situations involving domestic terrorists.

10.30 IDENTIFYING FRAUDULENT OR ALTERED DOCUMENTS

This unit describes commonly altered identification documents and methods to identify forged or altered documents.

10.31 INCIDENT COMMAND SYSTEM

This unit describes the Incident Command System.

10.32 FIRST RESPONDER HAZARDOUS MATERIALS AWARENESS

This unit describes the dangers presented by hazardous materials, precautions to take and procedures to follow at the scene of an incident.

10.33 WEAPONS OF MASS DESTRUCTION AWARENESS

This unit describes the chemical, biological and radiological weapons of mass destruction including potential sources, symptoms of an attack, protective measures and responder actions.

UNIT TITLE: Patrol

- 10.1 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will understand the major types of police patrol and the chief advantages and the rationale for each type.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 10.1.1 The trainee will identify basic preventive patrol concepts.

These concepts will include:

- A. Fluctuating patrol patterns
- B. Maintenance of visibility
- C. Frequent checks of business premises
- D. Frequent checks of suspicious persons
- E. Self directed

- 10.1.2 The trainee will identify basic directed patrol concepts.

These concepts will include:

- A. Structured patrol pattern
- B. Determined by higher authority
- C. Result of community complaint criminal activity analysis
- D. Designed to address a particular problem
- E. Finite time period

- 10.1.3 The trainee will identify consideration in planning patrols. This will include:

- A. Identify through community input principal crime, disorder and quality of life issues
- B. Have a thorough knowledge of persons and conditions in the assigned patrol area
- C. Work with superior officers in identifying training needs and strategies

- 10.1.4 The trainee will identify responsibilities of the police officer in a community to minimally include:

- A. Role as an information exchange referral source
- B. Problem solver
- C. Community organizer and planner
- D. Protector
- E. Most visible representative of the local government

10.1.5 The trainee will define the concept of "selective enforcement"

The definition will minimally include the following points:

- A. It is generally targeted to reduce specific violations or circumstances
- B. Can be based upon geographical considerations
- C. Must avoid even the appearance of discrimination due to race, ethnicity, age, sexual preference, gender or other factors

10.1.6 The trainee will identify the factors which may determine size of the patrol zone and shift assignment of personnel.

These factors will include:

- A. The type of police patrol utilized (foot vs. vehicular vs bicycle)
- B. Type of area (demographics, density)
- C. Type of criminal activity
- D. Frequency of crime
- E. Personnel available
- F. Frequency of and volume of calls for service by time of day and day of week

10.1.7 The trainee will list the advantages of "foot patrol" over "vehicular patrol". This listing will minimally include:

- A. Increased personal contact between police and citizen
- B. Increased ability to effectively observe activity and people
- C. Increased ability to gather information
- D. Increased ability to blend in with surroundings

10.1.8 The trainee will list the advantages of "vehicular patrol" over "foot patrol." This listing will minimally include:

- A. Increased speed and mobility
- B. Increased visibility
- C. Increased availability of additional equipment
- D. Increased transportation capability

UNIT TITLE: Observation and Perception

- 10.2 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will understand the relationship between what an individual sees and what the individual perceives. The trainee additionally will know methods by which the trainee's own perception skills may be improved and will possess the ability to utilize those skills effectively.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 10.2.1 The trainee will identify factors which affect perception by an individual. These factors will include:
- A. Past individual experiences
 - B. Experiences of other community members
 - C. Mental condition/cognitive ability
 - D. Emotional involvement
 - E. Environmental conditions present
 - F. Cultural influences
 - G. Media coverage of police actions
 - H. Personal bias
- 10.2.2 The trainee will explain how the perceptions of others and the resulting information may affect police activity.
- 10.2.3 The trainee will identify at least two means by which skills of observation and perception can be improved.
- 10.2.4 Given simulated situations where the trainee observes a scene and/or an activity for a specific period of time, the trainee will describe the scene or activity with acceptable accuracy.

UNIT TITLE: Patrol Techniques

- 10.3 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will be able to perform those techniques and procedures which maximize a police officer's capabilities in preventing and detecting crime while on patrol.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 10.3.1 The trainee will explain the factors to be considered by a police officer in becoming familiar with a newly assigned patrol area. The explanation will include:
- A. Community demographics and cultural background
 - B. Appropriate geographic information
 - C. Specific facts that may influence the patrol function, i.e., location of emergency hospitals, crime hazards, schools, businesses, etc.
 - D. Past criminal and quality of life issues in the patrol area
- 10.3.2 The trainee will list the duties a police officer must perform in order to prepare properly for a tour of duty. These duties will include:
- A. Being properly uniformed and equipped
 - B. Gathering information through crime reports and briefings including undercover activity in your patrol area.
 - C. Gathering needed materials, i.e., report forms, summons books, etc.
 - D. Obtaining and checking personal and departmental equipment, i.e., shotgun, vehicle, etc.
 - E. Being well rested and fit
- 10.3.3 The trainee will identify the criteria an officer should consider when determining an effective patrol route for covering the beat area.. The identification will include:
- A. Composition of patrol area
 - B. Location of police high crime areas
 - C. Population distribution
 - D. Selective enforcement activity
 - E. Recent crime activity
 - F. Comments from residents
 - G. Awareness of any undercover operations
- 10.3.4 The trainee will identify those locations and/or situations which exist in a patrol area that warrant frequent checks on the part of an officer (hot spots). These locations/situations will include:

- A. Areas where a breach of the peace or criminal act is likely to occur
 - B. Areas that are hazardous to the public safety
 - C. High risk areas
- 10.3.5 The trainee will describe patrol techniques that increase the possibility of crime detection.
- 10.3.6 The trainee will identify the advantages of an officer patrolling at a reduced speed. This identification will include:
- A. Increased physical sense acuity
 - B. Increased reaction ability
 - C. Increased visibility as a crime prevention measure
 - D. Increased opportunity for community contact
- 10.3.7 The trainee will identify those indicators of burglary about which an officer on patrol should be aware. These will include:
- A. Broken windows
 - B. Open doors
 - C. Pry marks around locks, on doorjambes and on window sills
 - D. Suspicious vehicles
 - E. Suspicious person on foot
 - F. Lights off that are normally on or vice versa
 - G. Unusual sounds (alarms, barking dogs, breaking glass)
 - H. Signs of suspicious roof access
- 10.3.8 The trainee will describe ways to determine if a parked vehicle has been recently operated.
- 10.3.9 The trainee will describe ways to determine if a vehicle has been parked at a location for a lengthy period of time.
- 10.3.10 Given simulated situations, the trainee will determine if there are any "wants" on persons and/or property using agency procedures.
- 10.3.11 Given simulated situations, the trainee will locate the Vehicle Identification Number (VIN) on various vehicles. These vehicles will include:
- A. Autos
 - B. Motorcycles
 - C. Trucks
 - D. Trailers

- 10.3.12 The trainee will explain his/her agency's policy(ies) on issues of mutual aid and jurisdiction. This will include:
- A. Using official vehicles and equipment outside the agency's primary jurisdiction
 - B. Responding to calls for assistance outside the agency's primary jurisdiction
 - C. Assisting outside agencies with arrests within agency area
- 10.3.13 The trainee will identify the actions a police officer should take when encountering a plainclothes officer. These actions will include:
- A. No display of recognition until presence acknowledged by the plainclothes officer
 - B. In the absence of acknowledgment, action should be identical to the treatment of any other citizen
- 10.3.14 The trainee will explain the hazards of "silhouetting" oneself while performing field tasks and methods of avoiding these hazards.
- 10.3.15 The trainee will explain the hazards of making certain authority sounds and methods of avoiding these hazards. The explanation will include:
- A. Vehicle sounds
 - B. Police radio sounds
 - C. Key sounds
 - D. Whistle sounds
 - E. Verbalizations
 - F. Uniform sounds (leather, raincoat, handcuffs, etc.)
- 10.3.16 The trainee will explain the importance of always having a suspect's hands in plain view.

Agency Training: 10.3.10, 10.3.12,

Practical Exercise: 10.3.10

Critical Training: 10.3.7, 10.3.13, 10.3.16

UNIT TITLE: Pedestrian Suspect Approach and Contact

- 10.4 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will be able to approach and contact pedestrian suspects safely and in a manner consistent with maintaining good community relations.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 10.4.1 The trainee will identify those characteristics which should arouse a police officer's suspicions toward an individual on foot and will describe those variables to consider when confronting that person. This identification and description will include:
- A. Identification of characteristics and/or activities that create suspicion
 - B. Factors to consider in determining:
 - 1. whether or not to stop the person
 - 2. when to stop the person
 - 3. where to stop the person
 - 4. method to utilize in stopping the person
- 10.4.2 The trainee will identify why it is beneficial to approach a pedestrian suspect on foot.
- 10.4.3 The trainee will demonstrate safe and effective tactics for approaching pedestrian suspects when the officer is in a patrol vehicle. The demonstration will include:
- A. Approaching pedestrian suspect(s) traveling in the same direction as the patrol vehicle and on the same side of the street
 - B. Approaching pedestrian suspect(s) traveling in the opposite direction as the patrol vehicle and on the same side of the street
 - C. Approaching pedestrian suspect(s) traveling in the same direction as the patrol vehicle and on the opposite side of the street
 - D. Approaching pedestrian suspect(s) traveling in the opposite direction as the patrol vehicle and on the opposite side of the street
- 10.4.4 The trainee will describe positions that one or two officers can take while interviewing one or more suspicious persons.
- 10.4.5 The trainee will describe the community relations implications of pedestrian contact in the context of a pedestrian stop.
- 10.4.6 The trainee will identify the importance of maintaining courtesy, professionalism and respect during a pedestrian contact.

- 10.4.7 Given simulated situations depicting person(s) acting suspiciously, the trainee having sufficient probable cause will approach, contact, interview and make the proper disposition of the person(s) contacted.

Practical Exercise: 10.4.3, 10.4.7

Critical Training: 10.4.1, 10.4.7

UNIT TITLE: Vehicle Pullover Techniques

- 10.5 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will be able to safely stop a vehicle utilizing authorized equipment, approach, contact and/or remove the occupants.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 10.5.1 The trainee will identify the advantages in recording and calling in to report the license number and description of the vehicle and its occupants an officer is about to stop.
- 10.5.2 The trainee will describe the proper distance between the target vehicle and the police vehicle when initiating a vehicle stop. This description will include:
- A. That distance which is not so great as to encourage the other driver to attempt escape
 - B. That distance which is not so close as to present a hazard due to unanticipated actions by the target driver
- 10.5.3 The trainee will identify techniques for gaining the attention of the target driver.
- 10.5.4 The trainee will identify the proper use of the spotlight in a pullover and approach situation. These uses will include:
- A. Not blinding the driver of the target vehicle while that vehicle is in motion
 - B. Illuminating the interior of the target vehicle after it has stopped
- 10.5.5 The trainee will identify the elements to be considered when selecting the proper location to effect the "stop" of a vehicle. These elements will include:
- A. A location presenting as little traffic hazard as possible
 - B. A location presenting as few escape routes as possible
 - C. A location presenting as little population as possible
 - D. A location presenting as much light as possible

- 10.5.6 The trainee will explain proper positioning of the police vehicle in effecting a vehicle stop. The explanation will include:
- A. Distances based upon nature of stop
 - B. Creation of a "safety corridor" for both the officer and target vehicle occupants
- 10.5.7 The trainee will identify the hazards to an officer when approaching a stopped vehicle on foot either alone or with a partner. These hazards will include:
- A. The threat of attack by the occupant(s) of the vehicle
 - B. The danger of being hit by passing traffic
 - C. The approach of another vehicle to the stop site
- 10.5.8 The trainee will explain his/her responsibility for the safety of the occupants of a vehicle stopped by him/her.
- 10.5.9 The trainee, in simulated situations, through a process of interview and other methods of screening, will determine the acceptability of various types of identification presented.
- 10.5.10 The trainee will identify potential hazards in failing to closely watch the movements of occupants in a target vehicle an officer is about to stop, is in the act of stopping or has already stopped. These hazards will include:
- A. Attack from both armed and unarmed occupants
 - B. Destruction or concealment of evidence
 - C. Escape of occupants
 - D. Flight of vehicle

- 10.5.11 The trainee will identify the issues to be considered when preparing to stop a vehicle containing a criminal suspect. These elements will include:
- A. Seriousness of crime
 - B. Availability of backup
 - C. Location to make stop
 - D. Tactics to be deployed upon effecting the stop
 - E. Number of suspects involved
- 10.5.12 The trainee will describe the tactics that could be used to safely stop and approach vehicles other than automobiles. These vehicles will include:
- A. Motorcycles
 - B. Campers and vans
 - C. Buses
 - D. Trucks
- 10.5.13 The trainee will describe the community relations implications of a vehicle stop.
- 10.5.14 The trainee will identify the importance of maintaining courtesy, professionalism and respect during a vehicle stop.
- 10.5.15 Given simulated situation(s) involving the stopping of another vehicle for a motor vehicle violation the trainee, using the employing agency's approved equipment, will demonstrate in a safe and acceptable manner the ability to stop the vehicle, radio the necessary information to the dispatcher, approach on foot and contact the occupant(s) of the vehicle.
- 10.5.16 Given simulated situation(s) involving the stopping of a vehicle containing criminal suspect(s), the trainee will demonstrate the ability to safely stop the vehicle, radio the necessary information to the dispatcher, remove and place the occupants in a position of disadvantage without the officer(s) being placed in a position that would be inherently dangerous.

Critical Training: 10.5.15, 10.5.16

Practical Exercise: 10.5.9, 10.5.15, 10.5.16

UNIT TITLE: Search of Suspects

10.6 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will be able to conduct safe and effective searches of suspects in situations that include both single and multiple suspects.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 10.6.1 The trainee will identify and describe the basic types of personal searches. These will include:
- A. The visual/cursory
 - B. The pat-down
 - C. The field search (standing, kneeling, prone)
 - D. The strip search (refer to performance objective 5.6.17)
- 10.6.2 The trainee will identify and explain the common principles of searching of an individual which maximize the effectiveness of the search and the safety of the officer(s). These principles will include:
- A. Constant alertness
 - B. Maintaining a position of control and "advantage"
 - C. Thoroughness of search continue to search until you find everything
 - D. Collecting and safe-guarding weapons and evidence
- 10.6.3 The trainee will identify the responsibilities of a "covering officer" when backing up another officer who is conducting a search of an individual(s). These responsibilities will include:
- A. Protecting the searching officer from outside interference
 - B. Acting as a psychological deterrent
 - C. Physically assisting the searching officer
 - D. Continuously observing suspect(s) and the immediate environment
- 10.6.4 The trainee will identify those places on both males and females where dangerous weapons or contraband may be concealed.
- 10.6.5 The trainee will identify his/her agency policy regarding the searching of individuals of the opposite sex, juveniles, elderly persons and persons who are physically handicapped or impaired.
- 10.6.6 Given simulated situations, the trainee will demonstrate the ability to perform safely and effectively as "cover officer" while another officer conducts searches of single and multiple suspects.

10.6.7 Given simulated situations, the trainee will demonstrate the ability to conduct the various types of searches of a suspect(s) safely and effectively. These will include:

- A. The visual/cursory search
- B. The pat-down search
- C. The field search, including the standing, kneeling, and prone positions

Agency Training: 10.6.5

Critical Training: 10.6.6, 10.6.7

Practical Exercise: 10.6.6, 10.6.7

UNIT TITLE: Search of Vehicles

10.7 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will be able to conduct a safe and effective search of a vehicle.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

10.7.1 The trainee will explain the principles of a safe and effective search of a vehicle. These will include:

- A. A systematic method of search
- B. Proper removal and control of occupants
- C. Safeguard weapons and/or contraband
- D. Proper collection of evidence
- E. Awareness of potential hazards

10.7.2 The trainee will conduct a safe and effective search of a vehicle.

Critical Training: 10.7.2

Practical Exercise: 10.7.2

UNIT TITLE: Search of Buildings or Areas

10.8 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will be able to initiate and conduct a safe and effective search of a building and a residential or business area.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

10.8.1 The trainee will identify the elements of a safe and effective search of a building or area for a suspect. These elements will include:

- A. Containment of the total area or building
- B. Containment of area(s) already searched
- C. Utilization of a systematic method
- D. Safe searching technique
- E. Control of persons encountered
- F. Safeguarding weapons/contraband and evidence
- G. Awareness of potential hazards (biological, physical, chemical, electrical, structural)

10.8.2 Given simulated situations, the trainee will safely and effectively initiate and conduct a search for a suspect, including deployment of any additional manpower available. This will include:

- A. Search of a building
- B. Search of a residential or business area

10.8.3 The trainee will identify the special considerations and tactic that must be considered when searching an occupied school, a wooded area or field.

Critical Training: 10.8.2

Practical Exercise: 10.8.2

UNIT TITLE: Handcuffing

- 10.9 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will be able to handcuff individual and multiple suspect(s) safely and effectively will be able to maintain control of a restrained prisoner and while removing the restraining device.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 10.9.1 The trainee will identify the purposes for handcuffing a prisoner. These purposes will include:
- A. Temporary restraint to prevent attack
 - B. Temporary restraint to prevent escape
 - C. Temporary restraint to prevent the destruction or concealment of evidence or contraband
 - D. Temporary restraint to prevent the individual from harming him/herself
- 10.9.2 The trainee will identify various handcuffing techniques which should be met in order to reasonably guarantee the restraint of a suspect. These principles will include:
- A. Constant control of the suspect
 - B. Constant control of the restraining device
 - C. Proper positioning of key outlets and double locks
 - D. Reasonable degree of tightness of application (proper fit)
 - E. Proper positioning of suspect's hands
 - F. Continued observation of the suspect
- 10.9.3 The trainee will explain his/her agency's policy regarding the handcuffing of individuals. The explanation will include handcuffing of:
- A. Males
 - B. Females
 - C. Juveniles
 - D. Special cases
 - E. Elderly persons
 - F. Injured persons
 - G. Physically handicapped persons
- 10.9.4 In simulated situation(s) , the trainee will safely and effectively handcuff individual and multiple suspects.
- 10.9.5 In simulated situation(s), the trainee will safely remove handcuffs from individual and multiple suspects. This will be done by:

- A. Maintaining control of the suspect(s)
- B. Maintaining control of the restraining device

Agency Training: 10.9.3

Critical Training: 10.9.4, 10.9.5

Practical Exercise: 10.9.4, 10.9.5

UNIT TITLE: Transportation of Prisoners

10.10 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will be able to transport various types of prisoners safely and effectively.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

10.10.1 The trainee will identify the elements of the safe transportation of prisoners. These elements will include:

- A. The search of the transport vehicle prior to and immediately after transporting the prisoner
- B. Proper positioning of officer(s) and prisoner(s) within the vehicle
- C. Close observation of the prisoner(s)
- D. Proper use of seat belts

10.10.2 The trainee will explain his/her agency's policy regarding transportation of prisoners and/or other individuals.

The explanation will include:

- A. Transportation of females
- B. Positioning within vehicle
- C. Transportation of injured or sick prisoners
- D. Transportation of juveniles
- E. Transportation of victims/witnesses
- F. Transportation infants and young children
- G. Transportation of other citizens

10.10.3 Given simulated situations, the trainee will demonstrate the ability to safely transport individual and multiple prisoners while both working alone and with a partner.

Agency Training: 10.10.2

Critical Training: 10.10.3

Practical Exercise: 10.10.3

UNIT TITLE: Prisoner Processing and Prisoner's Rights

- 10.11 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will possess the knowledge and ability to process adult prisoners and process juveniles in conformance with agency policy. The trainee will be aware of the rights of the prisoners and the provisions of applicable law.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 10.11.1 In a simulated situation, the trainee will properly complete the processing of an adult prisoner in conformance with the law and the policies of the agency. This processing will include the required notifications that an officer must make.
- 10.11.2 The trainee will explain his/her local agency requirements regarding issuing receipts for personal property taken from prisoners.
- 10.11.3 The trainee will explain the prisoner's rights that pertain to telephone calls immediately following processing.
- 10.11.4 The trainee will identify notifications an officer is required to give when processing a juvenile. The notifications will reflect:
 - A. The law
 - B. The policies of his/her agency
- 10.11.5 In a simulated situation, the trainee will properly complete the processing of a juvenile in conformance with the law and the policies of his/her agency.

- 10.11.6 In a simulated situation, the trainee will properly complete the processing of prisoners who warrant special consideration and will identify the detention facility his/her agency, designates for the processing of such prisoners. These special considerations should include instances when a prisoner is:
- A. Intoxicated or under the influence alcohol/drugs
 - B. Injured
 - C. Sick
 - D. Female
 - E. Juvenile
 - F. Excited/ emotionally disturbed
 - G. Mentally handicapped/disoriented
 - H. Does not speak English
 - I. Physically handicapped
 - J. Elderly
- 10.11.7 The trainee will identify indicators that a prisoner may be suicidal.
- 10.11.8 The trainee will identify precautions to be taken to prevent prisoner suicide.

Agency Training: 10.11.1, 10.11.2, 10.11.4, 10.11.5, 10.11.6

Practical Exercise: 10.11.1, 10.11.5, 10.11.6

UNIT TITLE: Releasing Prisoners From Custody

10.12 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will possess knowledge concerning the release of adult prisoners and juveniles in custody according to agency policy. The trainee will be aware of rights of the prisoners and applicable law.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

10.12.1 The trainee will identify those conditions under which a prisoner may be released.

10.12.2 The trainee will identify his/her agency's procedures for the release of a prisoner

Agency Training: 10.12.2

UNIT TITLE: Tactical Considerations For Crimes-In-Progress

10.13 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will be able to respond to crimes in progress safely and effectively.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES

- 10.13.1 The trainee will identify the basic alternative choices for responding to a crime-in-progress. These choices will include:
- A. Proceed directly to scene as quickly and silently as possible
 - B. Proceed directly to scene utilizing siren and flashing lights
 - C. Proceed to the location most likely to intercept fleeing suspect(s)
 - D. Proceed to scene and coordinate arrival and/ or deployment with other units
 - E. Proceed to an adjacent location and continue on foot
- 10.13.2 The trainee will identify the criteria to be considered when determining the method to be utilized in responding to crimes-in-progress. This identification will include:
- A. Distance to location
 - B. Availability of assisting units
 - C. Nature of crime
 - D. Time lag
 - E. Geographic environment (street configuration, freeway ramps, etc.)
 - F. Agency policy
 - G. Time of day, vehicular and pedestrian traffic patterns
 - H. Common sense
- 10.13.3 The trainee will identify the criteria upon which an officer should base the selection of a response route. These criteria will include:
- A. Distance to location
 - B. Traffic situation
 - C. Time of day
 - D. Condition of route
 - E. Most appropriate direction from which to approach
 - F. Criticality of situation

- 10.13.4 The trainee will identify the tactical responsibilities of the primary unit responding to a crime-in-progress call. These will include:
- A. Formulation of a flexible plan
 - B. Coordination with other units
 - C. "Flash" and other radio transmissions
- 10.13.5 The trainee will identify tactical considerations in response to a robbery-in-progress. These will include:
- A. Determination of a response method
 - B. Plan for deployment upon arrival at scene
 - C. Protected entry into location
 - D. Apprehension of suspects or initiation of criminal information
 - E. Hostage or bystander safety
 - F. Securing the scene and witnesses after apprehension
- 10.13.6 The trainee will identify tactical considerations to be made in response to a burglary-in-progress. These will include:
- A. Silent approach
 - B. Coordination of responding units
 - C. Where to park vehicle
 - D. Containment of the scene
 - E. Exterior search of scene
 - F. Protected entry and interior search of location
 - G. Apprehension of suspect(s) followed by continued search
 - H. Securing the scene
- 10.13.7 The trainee will identify common procedures to be followed in responding to a prowler call. This identification will include:
- A. Coordination of responding units
 - B. Utilization of a quiet and possible "blackout" approach
 - C. Containment of the area
 - D. Actions to take upon arrival

10.13.8 The trainee will identify tactical considerations to be made in response to a shooting in progress call. These will include:

- A. When to deploy
- B. Assessment of situation
- C. Communications
- D. Assemblage of response team
- E. Assemblage of rescue team

10.13.9 Given simulated situations, the trainee will safely and effectively respond to and handle various crimes-in-progress. These will include

- A. Robbery-in-progress
- B. Burglary-in-progress
- C. Prowler calls
- D. Unknown emergency
- E. Shooting in progress

Critical Training: 10.13.8, 10.13.9

Practical Exercise: 10.13.8, 10.13.9

Agency Training: 10.13.2(F)

UNIT TITLE: Handling Disturbances, Disputes and Domestic Violence Situations

- 10.14 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will be able to handle disturbances, disputes, and domestic violence situations in a safe and efficient manner consistent with the maintenance of positive community relations and consistent with NJ laws.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 10.14.1 The trainee will identify an officer's basic responsibilities at the scene of a disturbance. These responsibilities will include:
- A. Keep the peace (restore and maintain order)
 - B. Provide safety to individuals and property (provide first aid as needed)
 - C. Determine if a crime has been committed
 - D. Take appropriate action to resolve the problem
 - E. Refer to appropriate agencies
- 10.14.2 The trainee will explain why situations involving disturbances, disputes and domestic violence are confrontations which test an officer's skills.
- 10.14.3 The trainee will describe the dangers to an officer who arrives at the scene of a disturbance, a dispute, or a domestic violence situation.
- 10.14.4 The trainee will explain the advantages and disadvantages of separating parties at a disturbance, dispute or domestic violence situation and then obtaining information from each person individually.
- 10.14.5 The trainee will identify the major forms of abusive behavior in domestic violence situations.
- 10.14.6 The trainee will identify appropriate action to be taken at the scene of domestic violence in accordance with the "Prevention of Domestic Violence Act" (N.J.S.A. 2C:25-17 et. seq.)
- 10.14.7 Given simulated situations, the trainee will handle a domestic violence situation in a safe and effective manner and will complete the required Domestic Violence Reports.

- 10.14.8 The trainee will identify the proper procedures for the seizure of weapons in domestic violence cases involving following circumstances:
- A. Voluntary surrender by an actor
 - B. Plain view
 - C. Consent of the victim in jointly-occupied premises
 - D. Refusal to surrender
 - E. Domestic violence warrant process
 - F. Court orders
 - G. Law enforcement officer involved
- 10.14.9 The trainee will describe the positive or negative impact on the community of handling a domestic violence incident both properly and inadequately.
- 10.14.10 The trainee will identify the importance of maintaining courtesy, professionalism and respect during a domestic violence incident.
- 10.14.11 Given various simulated situations, the trainee will demonstrate the proper procedure to be followed for the seizure of weapons in domestic violence incidents.

Critical Training: 10.14.7, 10.14.8

Practical Exercise: 10.14.7, 10.14.11

UNIT TITLE: Civil Disputes

10.15 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will recognize and be able to deal with civil disputes effectively.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 10.15.1 Given simulated situations the trainee will identify those containing criminal violations, civil disputes, and torts. These situations will include those that the trainee is likely to encounter upon field assignment by his/her agency.
- 10.15.2 The trainee will explain the general laws applicable to handling of landlord-tenant disputes.
- 10.15.3 The trainee will explain the general rules pertaining to the repossession of items by court order or agreement. These rules will include:
 - A. What property is subject to repossession
 - B. Who may make a repossession
 - C. To what lengths a repossessioner may go to make a repossession
 - D. When the repossession is complete
- 10.15.4 The trainee will explain the general procedure and legal basis for handling labor disputes. This explanation will include:
 - A. Trespassing or loitering near posted business properties
 - B. Legalities of allegations by either management or union members that the other party is not abiding by the court orders
 - C. Activities that interfere with the operations of a business establishment
 - D. Enforcement of court orders
- 10.15.5 The trainee will describe his/her agency's policy for handling of labor disputes by police officers.
- 10.15.6 The trainee will describe the positive and negative impact on the community of handling a civil dispute both properly and inadequately.
- 10.15.7 The trainee will identify the importance of maintaining courtesy, professionalism and respect during a civil dispute.
- 10.15.8 Given simulated situations based on civil law cases, the trainee will handle the situations in a manner consistent with agency policy and law.

The situations will include:

- A. A situation involving a landlord-tenant dispute
- B. A situation involving the repossession of a vehicle
- C. A civil dispute situation likely to be encountered by the trainee on field assignment

Agency Training: 10.15.5

Practical Exercise: 10.15.8

UNIT TITLE: Missing Persons

- 10.16 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will know proper procedures in the initial response and investigation of missing persons complaints. He/she will possess the ability to recognize the different categories associated with missing persons complaints. He/ she will be able to take appropriate action when confronted with situations involving missing adults and juveniles. He/she will also know proper procedures to take when responding to a call involving an unidentified dead body.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 10.16.1 The trainee will recognize the scope of the missing persons problem on the national and state levels and will identify the resources available for providing assistance in missing persons cases.
- 10.16.2 The trainee will identify the categories of missing persons as reported through the National Crime Information Center (NCIC).
- 10.16.3 The trainee will identify the procedures to be followed in cases involving missing juveniles.
- 10.16.4 The trainee will identify the procedures to be followed in cases involving missing adults.
- 10.16.5 The trainee will identify the procedures to take when investigating unidentified dead bodies.
- 10.16.6 The trainee will identify his/hers agency's policy and procedures for reporting missing persons.

Agency Training: 10.16.6

UNIT TITLE: Handling Sick, Injured, and Deceased Persons

10.17 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will know his/her agency's policies and procedures for handling sick, injured, and deceased persons.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 10.17.1 The trainee will identify the procedures of his/her agency for handling of sick or injured persons. These procedures will include:
 - A. The extent of first aid to be performed by police
 - B. The role of ambulance and paramedic crews
 - C. The hospitals to which sick or injured are to be transported
 - D. The use of universal precautions when handling sick, injured, or deceased persons
- 10.17.2 The trainee will identify those criteria by which an individual may be determined to be dead and how he/she is declared legally dead.
- 10.17.3 The trainee will identify his/her agency's procedures for handling various dead body calls under various situations. These situations will include persons who have died:
 - A. As a result of a suicide
 - B. With a doctor signing a death certificate
 - C. From apparent natural causes, no death certificate
 - D. As a result of an accident
 - E. Under suspicious circumstances
 - F. As a result of a crime
- 10.17.4 The trainee will explain the limits to which an officer may search a dead person.
- 10.17.5 The trainee will explain the legalities involved in transporting a dead person.
- 10.17.6 The trainee will describe the community relations implications of handling sick, injured or deceased persons.

- 10.17.7 The trainee will identify the importance of maintaining courtesy, professionalism and respect when handling sick, injured or deceased persons.

This unit describes the preliminary investigative responsibilities for serious crimes against persons, which include aggravated assaults, sexual assault, homicide, suicide, robbery, kidnaping, poisoning, spouse abuse and child abuse. Practice in accomplishing the required duties is included.

12.12 PRELIMINARY INVESTIGATION OF CRIMES AGAINST PROPERTY

This unit focuses on the responsibilities of the responding police officer(s) in the preliminary investigation of a theft, a motor vehicle theft and a burglary. It presents the proper investigative procedures to follow and gives practice in handling the duties delegated to the officer.

12.13 COURTROOM TESTIMONY

This unit describes how the use of a professional approach can increase the credibility of a police officer's testimony in court. It identifies the value of proper courtroom demeanor and appearance, gives procedures to follow when preparing to testify and explains the principles of effective testimony. In addition, the trainee will be given practice in furnishing testimony in response to a variety of attorney tactics which may be used to discredit the officer's testimony.

UNIT TITLE: Preliminary Investigation-Responsibility of the Responding Officer

- 12.1 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will know the police officer's duties and responsibilities which his/her agency assigns to its officers at the scene of a crime, and will possess the knowledge and skill necessary for their accomplishment.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 12.1.1 The trainee will identify the steps necessary in a preliminary investigation.
- 12.1.2 The trainee will identify the role and responsibilities of the initial responding officer to a crime scene. These will include:
- A. Ensure officer's safety and the safety of others present
 - B. Ensure medical aid for injured
 - C. Preservation and control of crime scene
 - D. Notification to supervisor
 - E. Identify and secure witnesses and victims
 - F. Documentation of observations made
- 12.1.3 The trainee will identify common mistakes which can contaminate a crime scene.
- 12.1.4 The trainee will explain why it is particularly critical that the responding officer show sensitivity to the emotional state and needs of victims, family members and witnesses at a crime scene.
- 12.1.5 Given a simulated situation in which a crime has just occurred and the suspect has fled the trainee will explain how to use the radio to alert other officers and agencies.
- 12.1.6 Given a practical exercise depicting a variety of conditions, the trainee will explain how to identify the perimeter of the crime scene and how to contain and preserve the scene.
- 12.1.7 Given a practical exercise in which citizens, other police officers and public officials attempt to enter a "contained" crime scene, the trainee will demonstrate his/her ability to deny them access and to identify and maintain a comprehensive log of those authorized to enter.
- 12.1.8 The trainee will identify evidence that would logically be classified as "fragile" and will specify the actions necessary to preserve each piece of evidence.

- 12.1.9 The trainee will explain the responsibility the officer has to inform the victim and witness of the process of the investigation and available services to witnesses and victims.
- 12.1.10 Given a simulated situation, the trainee will exhibit the ability to conduct that portion of a preliminary investigation that would minimally include:
- A. Ensure the trainee's safety and the safety of others present
 - B. Identify the extent of the crime scene
 - C. Ensure medical aid for injured
 - D. Contain area-preserve crime scene
 - E. Identify and preserve evidence
 - F. Notify supervisor
 - G. Locate and identify suspects, witnesses, and victims
 - H. Conduct initial interviews
 - I. Complete field notes indicating conditions and events

Note: This Performance Objective should follow the completion of Functional Area 12.0

Practical Exercises: 12.1.7, 12.1.10

UNIT TITLE: Investigation Responsibilities

12.2 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will know his/her agency's organization and chain of command pertaining to the handling of investigative responsibilities including the coordination and responsibilities of overlapping jurisdictions.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

12.2.1 The trainee will identify the organization and delegation of investigative responsibilities within his/her agency.

Agency Training: 12.2.1

UNIT TITLE: Identification of Physical Evidence

12.3 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will be proficient in the identification of physical evidence.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

12.3.1 Given a practical exercise, the trainee will search a crime scene for physical evidence through the use of an organized method such as the "strip," "spiral," "grid" and "quadrant" methods.

12.3.2 Given a variety of practical exercises in which items of evidence that would be reasonably associated with the alleged crime are present, the trainee will identify these items as evidence.

Practical Exercises: 12.3.1, 12.3.2

UNIT TITLE: Marking or Packaging and Tagging of Evidence

12.4 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will possess the knowledge and skill needed to mark and/or tag items of evidence in a manner which ensures future in-court identification.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

12.4.1 Given a practical exercise consisting of a variety of types of evidence at a crime scene, the trainee will mark or package and tag each kind of evidence in a manner which is consistent with his/her agency's policies and ensures future in-court identification. The types of evidence will include:

- A. Soil
- B. Non-biological liquids
- C. Firearms and other weapons
- D. Minute and very large items
- E. Clothing
- F. Hazardous substances
- G. Knives and other sharp objects
- H. Biologicals (blood, saliva and other body fluids)
- I. Tools
- J. Drugs
- K. Vehicles
- L. Documents
- M. Computers
- N. Perishable items
- O. Cash, jewelry and other valuables

12.4.2 The trainee will identify the proper procedure consistent with agency policy for the handling of explosives.

Practical Exercise: 12.4.1

Agency Training: 12.4.2

UNIT TITLE: Preserving Evidence

- 12.5 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will possess the ability to preserve an item of evidence in such a way as to ensure that the evidence is received by an examining authority or court in the approximate condition in which it was found.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 12.5.1 Given a practical exercise which takes place during inclement weather at an outside crime scene, the trainee will preserve items of evidence without losing or altering them.
- 12.5.2 The trainee will explain his/her agency's rules, policies, and procedures regarding the storage of various types of evidence. These types of evidence will include:
- A. Soil
 - B. Non-biological liquids
 - C. Firearms and other weapons
 - D. Minute and very large items
 - E. Clothing
 - F. Hazardous substances
 - G. Knives and other sharps
 - H. Biological materials (blood, saliva and other body fluids)
 - I. Tools
 - J. Explosives
 - K. Drugs
 - L. Vehicles
 - M. Documents
 - N. Computers
 - O. Perishable items
 - P. Cash, jewelry and other valuable items
- 12.5.3 The trainee will explain his/her agency's policies and procedures regarding the transmission of evidence to laboratory examination facilities.
- 12.5.4 The trainee will explain the term "chain of custody."

- 12.5.5 The trainee will properly complete all necessary forms utilized by his/her agency to ensure the chain of custody.

Agency Training: 12.5.2, 12.5.3, 12.5.5

Practical Exercises: 12.5.1, 12.5.5

UNIT TITLE: Preparing Crime Scene Notes

12.6 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will possess the ability to prepare satisfactory crime scene notes and provide for their satisfactory disposition.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

12.6.1 Given a practical exercise in which a crime scene is depicted, the trainee will satisfactorily prepare crime scene notes. These notes will minimally include:

- A. Identification of officer in charge
- B. Observations of significant conditions present at the time of arrival
- C. Identification of victim(s), witnesses, and suspect(s)
- D. Chronological account of actions taken until relieved
- E. Recording of any identification and handling of items of evidence
- F. Date, time and location of officer's arrival and departure
- G. Weather conditions
- H. Log of all personnel entering and exiting the scene

12.6.2 The trainee will identify his/her agency's policy and procedures pertaining to the disposition of completed crime scene notes.

Agency Training: 12.6.2

Practical Exercise: 12.6.1

UNIT TITLE: Crime Scene Documentation

12.7 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will possess the ability to prepare satisfactory crime scene sketches.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

12.7.1 The trainee will explain the value of the following methods of crime scene documentation:

- A. Crime scene photographs
- B. Crime scene notes
- C. Crime scene sketches
- D. Crime scene videotapes

12.7.2 Given a simulated crime scene, the trainee will prepare a crime scene sketch. This sketch will minimally include:

- A. All appropriate measurements
- B. Identification of items of evidence
- C. Identification of reference points
- D. Scale to which sketch is drawn
- E. A legend
- F. Direction of north

Practical Exercise: 12.7.2

UNIT TITLE: Locating and Processing Fingerprints

12.8 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will possess such knowledge and skill as to enable him/her to locate and process fingerprint evidence in a manner that will ensure its evidential value.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

12.8.1 The trainee will explain the differences between "latent fingerprints" and "plastic fingerprints".

12.8.2 Given a practical exercise in which a variety of "latent" and "plastic" prints have been placed on a number of items that vary in texture and color, the trainee will handle the responsibilities commonly assigned to an officer at his/her level. These responsibilities may include (if applicable):

- A. Locating the prints
- B. Developing the prints
- C. Preserving the prints (for identification in court)

12.8.3 The trainee will identify who in his/her agency is responsible for the activities identified in 12.8.2

Agency Training: 12.8.2, 12.8.3

Practical Exercise: 12.8.2

UNIT TITLE: Developing Sources of Information

- 12.9 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will possess the ability to recognize effective techniques of identifying and developing sources, informants, informers and records as means of collecting information.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 12.9.1 The trainee will describe methods of identifying and developing sources of information.
- 12.9.2 The trainee will identify and describe types of private records which may be of assistance when collecting investigative information, and will explain the legal requirements regarding use of private records.
- 12.9.3 The trainee will identify and describe public records which may be of assistance when collecting information.
- 12.9.4 The trainee will explain the benefit of maintaining good community relations for the development of sources of information.

UNIT TITLE: Planning and Conducting an Interview

- 12.10 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will recognize the importance of planning interviews and will know how and when to advise a person of his/her Miranda rights in a manner that conforms with the judicial requirements.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 12.10.1 The trainee will define interview and interrogation and state the goal of each.
- 12.10.2 The trainee will identify specific factors which can affect a witness' ability to observe or recall an event.
- 12.10.3 The trainee will identify the steps a police officer should take in preparing for an interview.
- 12.10.4 The trainee will identify the steps in conducting an interview.
- 12.10.5 The trainee will explain the importance of being a good listener during an interview.
- 12.10.6 The trainee will identify two methods which can be used to record responses during an interview.
- 12.10.7 The trainee will identify techniques to use while taking field notes during an interview to avoid discouraging the interviewee from talking.
- 12.10.8 The trainee will identify effective techniques for interviewing individuals who are:
 - A. Hostile or uncooperative
 - B. Nervous
 - C. Cooperative
 - D. Juvenile
 - E. Diminished mental condition (temporary or permanent)
 - F. Eyewitnesses
 - G. Victims
 - H. Potential suspects
- 12.10.9 The trainee will recognize verbal and non-verbal behaviors and state how these behaviors can be used by the police officer during an interview or interrogation.
- 12.10.10 The trainee will demonstrate the proper way to administer Miranda warnings as well as when they must be given and when they need not be given.

- 12.10.11 The trainee will identify the two tactics which should never be used during an interrogation.
- 12.10.12. The trainee will describe the steps of a specific interrogation technique.
- 12.10.13 Given simulated situations depicting criminal offenses, the trainee will interview persons (actors) about their knowledge of the offense.

Practical Exercises: 12.10.10, 12.10.13

UNIT TITLE: Preliminary Investigation of Serious Crimes Against Persons

- 12.11 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will possess the knowledge and skill necessary to satisfactorily accomplish a uniformed police officer's responsibilities associated with the preliminary investigation of serious crimes against persons.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 12.11.1 Given a practical exercise requiring preliminary investigation of an alleged aggravated assault, the trainee will demonstrate his/her ability to accomplish those tasks commonly delegated to the police officer.
- 12.11.2 Given a practical exercise requiring preliminary investigation of an alleged sexual assault, the trainee will demonstrate his/her ability to accomplish those tasks commonly delegated to the police officer.
- 12.11.3 Given a practical exercise requiring preliminary investigation of an alleged homicide, the trainee will demonstrate his/her ability to accomplish those tasks commonly delegated to the police officer.
- 12.11.4 Given a practical exercise requiring the preliminary investigation of an apparent suicide, the trainee will demonstrate his/her ability to accomplish those tasks commonly delegated to the police officer.
- 12.11.5 Given a practical exercise requiring preliminary investigation responsibilities of an alleged robbery, the trainee will demonstrate his/her ability to accomplish those tasks commonly delegated to the police officer.
- 12.11.6 Given a practical exercise requiring preliminary investigation of an alleged kidnaping, the trainee will demonstrate his/her ability to accomplish those tasks commonly delegated to the police officer.
- 12.11.7 Given a practical exercise requiring preliminary investigation at the scene of an alleged poisoning, accidental or otherwise, the trainee will demonstrate the ability to accomplish those tasks commonly delegated to the police officer.
- 12.11.8 Given a practical exercise requiring preliminary investigation of an alleged domestic violence situation, the trainee will demonstrate his/her ability to accomplish those tasks commonly delegated to the police officer.

- 12.11.9 Given a practical exercise requiring preliminary investigation of a case of alleged child abuse, the trainee will demonstrate his/her ability to accomplish those tasks commonly delegated to the police officer.
- 12.11.10 The trainee will describe the emotional and psychological factors facing a victim and family members of crime and particularly violent crime.
- 12.11.11 The trainee will identify ways the officer can address the needs of victims and family members.

Practical Exercise: 12.11.1-9

UNIT TITLE: Preliminary Investigation of Crimes Against Property

12.12 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will possess the knowledge and skill necessary to satisfactorily accomplish a uniformed police officer's responsibilities associated with the preliminary investigation of crimes against property.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 12.12.1 Given a practical exercise requirement to handle the preliminary investigative responsibilities of an alleged theft, the trainee will demonstrate his/her ability to accomplish those tasks commonly delegated to the police officer.
- 12.12.2 The trainee will demonstrate the ability to handle those responsibilities commonly delegated to a police officer investigating an alleged motor vehicle theft.
- 12.12.3 Given a practical exercise, the trainee will demonstrate the ability to handle those responsibilities commonly delegated to the police officer investigating an alleged burglary.

Practical Exercises: 12.12.1, 12.12.2, 12.12.3

UNIT TITLE: Courtroom Testimony

- 12.13 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will possess the ability to prepare and furnish courtroom testimony in such a manner as to promote professionalism and the administration of justice.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 12.13.1 The trainee will identify the value of impressive and professional courtroom demeanor and appearance.
- 12.13.2 The trainee will list the steps in the following areas to be taken by an officer preparing to give courtroom testimony. These will include:

Practical Exercise: 12.13.4

FUNCTIONAL AREA 13.0
PHYSICAL FITNESS

The trainee will understand the physical problems that typically affect police officers. The trainee will be able to assess his/her own physical condition, understand the factors contributing to maintaining physical fitness and will learn the skills necessary for developing a physical fitness program designed to prevent health problems. The trainee will also participate in the Police Training Commission's Physical Conditioning Training Program.

UNIT TITLE:

13.1 PHYSICAL FITNESS

In this unit the common physical problems of police officers are identified. Programs for the prevention of these problems are given. The hazards of smoking and the use and abuse of alcohol are discussed. The importance of diet and physical activity will be stressed. Methods of self evaluation of body fat and developing cardiovascular endurance will be presented and practiced. Trainees will learn the skills necessary to develop their own individualized program of activities to promote cardiovascular endurance, muscular strength and endurance and flexibility. Trainees will participate in the Police Training Commission's Physical conditioning Training Program.

UNIT TITLE: Physical Fitness

- 13.1 UNIT GOAL: The trainee will understand the physical problems that typically affect police officers. The trainee will be able to assess his/her own physical condition, understand the factors contributing to maintaining physical fitness and will learn the skills necessary for developing a physical fitness program designed to prevent health problems. The trainee will also participate in the Police Training Commission's Physical Conditioning Training Program.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

- 13.1.1 The trainee will identify the primary factors contributing to health problems of police officers:
- A. Heart disease
 - B. Low back injuries
 - C. Gastrointestinal disorders
- 13.1.2 The trainee will identify the hazards of cigarette smoking. The hazards will minimally include the effects on the cardiovascular system and various types of cancer.
- 13.1.3 The trainee will identify the problems associated with the use and abuse of alcohol. The problems will minimally include:
- A. Addiction
 - B. General psychological effects
 - C. Effects of alcohol on the body
- 13.1.4 The trainee will describe a program directed to the prevention of heart problems. The program description will minimally include:
- A. Aerobic fitness
 - B. Weight control and body composition
 - C. Control of cholesterol levels.
- 13.1.5 The trainee will identify key factors for the prevention of low back injury.
- 13.1.6 The trainee will identify measures to prevent gastrointestinal disorders and describe how they can be practiced on the job.

- 13.1.7 The trainee will identify the general effects that the following basic food nutrients have on the body:
- A. Carbohydrates
 - B. Fats
 - C. Protein
- 13.1.8 The trainee will identify commonly eaten foods that are either high or low in:
- A. Calories
 - B. Carbohydrates.
 - C. Fats (cholesterol)
- 13.1.9 The trainee will identify the components of weight control program. These components will include:
- A. Diet
 - B. Physical activity
- 13.1.10 The trainee will identify various methods of evaluating his/her body fat level.
- 13.1.11 The trainee will identify a method for computing the target heart rate when performing aerobic activities.
- 13.1.12 The trainee will identify various components of an individualized physical fitness program.
- The program will include the following areas:
- A. Cardiovascular endurance
 - B. Muscular strength and endurance
 - C. Flexibility
- 13.1.13 The trainee will participate in the Police Training commission's Physical Conditioning Training Program as stipulated in the commission's Physical Conditioning Training Program manual. The trainee will participate in activities that relate to:
- A. Flexibility
 - B. Agility
 - C. Balance
 - D. Power
 - E. Speed
 - F. Muscular Strength and Endurance
 - G. Cardiorespiratory Endurance
